H^{Elect Lady Tracy Ford} Heart Food

Exercise Your Authority

Watch over your heart with all diligence, for out of it flows the issues of life. [Proverbs 4:23]

In this season we must pay attention to who we give our hearts to. In the natural, our heart is the most vital organ in our body, if it stops, everything stops. Why do we give our hearts so easily to those who have not proven themselves worthy? Proverbs 4:23 tells us, “watch over your heart with all diligence, for out of it flows the issues of life.” Issues as we know them are all matters of importance to be resolved. Let us talk about that little word issue. We would not have as many of these issues in life if we would obey this scripture, guard and watch over your heart. When we dismiss this word, it is a setup for a heart attack. When we put a guard over something, it is because we are trying to protect it or keep something out. God does not want us to allow certain things to get in our heart, thus he tells us to guard our hearts.

We will go through all kinds of things for the one who has our heart. Whatever they desire, we will try our best to please them, even if we do not feel like it. But because they have our heart we will at least try. When God truly has our heart, His desire becomes our desire.

Sometimes we let people into our Holy of Holies too soon. As soon as they say what we want to hear, and satisfy our flesh, they are in; the combination to the safe guard over our heart has been broken. We must be more like our Father, God, he does not let just any `ole body into his Holy of Holies. We have to be proven first then he will let us in. We do not make people prove themselves like God does.

Many are so desperate to have someone in their life that it does not take much. Do not sell your heart so cheaply! The wrong person, with the right words, right smile, and right bank account can gain access to our heart. Why is this so? Selah.

It is mentioned many times in the Bible, the old and new testaments, that we are to “LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND” (also translated as strength), but notice in all of them he mentions your heart first. Love Him with all your heart first. God knows when loving and pleasing him is a priority everything else comes second, third, fourth, etc. [Deuteronomy 30:6, Matthew 22:37] He wants our heart to be anchored in Him only. God does not want our hearts to be divided. He knows if it is, there will not be total commitment, therefore giving place for abandonment. Too many options are not always good. Sometimes when things are not going good in our eyes, we may turn to something we should not or even revert back to who we use to be. God does not want anything or anybody to be able to turn our heart away from him. Romans 8:35 asks a question, "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?" Our prayer is nothing shall separate you; God did not spare his own Son, but delivered him over for all..." [Romans 8:32] God did not allow a little heart ache of the suffering of his Son to separate him from purpose. He did not hold him back because Jesus' heart was to do his Father's will. As a parent, we know that could not have been easy but his heart was dedicated to fulfilling the big picture--through hurt and pain, this must be so Jesus was always focused and had the heart of his Father, he was always about His Father's business. He and the Father were one; there was always a united purpose. Luke 4:18-19 says, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives, recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who

Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. [Matthew 22:37]

are oppressed, to proclaim the favorable year of the Lord." Jesus was anointed for the people, the sick, the lost, orphans, widows, and the list goes on and on. God has a heart for the people, or as the scriptures say- for the sheep. He is the good shepherd and the good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. [John 10:11] That is his hearts' desire. The things and people that are valuable to us are connected to our hearts. Matthew 6:21 says, "for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." If you have lost a loved one or misplaced something of value to you, there is a feeling of grief and loss. Why? They were considered important and valuable to you. Why did it hurt and bother you so bad, because you treasured that person. They meant a lot to you. You did not feel the hurt in your toe, you felt that hurt in your heart.

God said, He has placed His treasure in earthen vessels... [2 Corinthians 4:7] We are the earthen vessels he is referring to; yes, you have a treasure on the inside of you!

What is that treasure? His Spirit; we must be counted special in order for God to place this gift in us. When we possess something that is valuable, we do not just lay it around anywhere, we put it in a special place. We choose a place where no one else will look. Well, that is pretty much what God did when He put His spirit in us. He put something valuable inside something special. So, if you did not know, you are special to God. Let Him have your heart and avoid the heart attacks. He wants it ALL.

THE BEST IS YET TO COME

So he got up and went to his father. "But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him. Luke 15:20

In Jesus' confrontation with the chief principle of power and authority, the under sovereignty of this world, the scriptures say, "all things will I give you, fall down and worship me." [Matthew 4:9] Notice, Jesus never challenged Satan's claim, because worship equals acquisition. You cannot worship and not get. I am not saying you worship to get something, but I am saying you cannot truly worship and not receive. You will be surprised to know how many in the secular world have made deals with their souls, literally sold their souls to the devil and have gained the deceitful riches of this world. Now, if the devil can give you blessings when you worship him, how much more do you get it if we worship the Kings of Kings. The Bible said Jesus answered thou shalt worship the Lord thy God and him only shalt thou serve. [Matthew 4:10] The next verse says, "And the devil leaveth him." When Jesus settled the issue of worship – the devil left. Didn't have to speak in tongues, didn't have to call a prayer meeting, didn't have to roll on the floor. Did not need any special medallion, when he said, "you ain't getting no praise here, the devil left." If there is an abundance of demonic activity in your life, may it be because there is an absence of worship of God in your life. Those who only worship on a Sunday, you allow the devil all week to work on you. So worship is a life style – to bow and kiss the doxology – to ascribe worth or value to – worship.

Now, you may be asking, how does worship intersect with love? I am glad you asked. Everything! If the object of your worship is not established, the kingdom of God has no true significance in your life. God the Father is the central figure in the Kingdom of God, the one to whom Jesus commands us to direct our petitions and hallow his name. All glory and honor belong unto him, for he alone is worthy. In life we all can become victims of misplaced priorities and worship the gifts above the giver of the gifts. When displacement occurs, alignment is needed. The issue is worship, because when worship is right, everything is in the right place, even the devil that is running from you!

Jesus is now again trying to explain what the kingdom of God is. In the semantic or Eastern culture to ask for your inheritance before your father dies was the equivalent to wishing that was dead. It was a slap in the face to the father. It connotes it was derision between the son and the father. It meant the son did not value what the father had, so long and hard, worked for. The father without question or rebuke released unto the son what he asked for. So the son precedes on to live his life in riotous living. But one day he runs out of money, he looks around and he is all alone. The friends he thought he had were opportunist who move on the next provider. The son now has hit rock bottom, so much so that he desired to eat hog's lop. Then the light of God's mercy begins to shine in and I know it demonstrates his love for us by giving up his life for our wrongs. [Romans 5:8] Where did love meet you.? Flipping the script on the devil and giving new light to divine reconciliation, it can only be achieved through the unconditional love of the Father, not the son. Now, the son's father says: go get tools of restoration- the robe, the ring, the shoes and a fatted calf, not a lamb. Why? The father understood that not only was the family hurt, but there were others whose dreams were shattered by the son's actions.

So the father wanted to avoid a

...love covers a multitude of sin. [1 Peter 4:8]

did, because the Bible says, "when he can to himself, he said...I will arise and go to my Father's house." [Luke 15:17-18] Unbeknownst to him, worship had just begun. Remember, you cannot worship without the Father receiving a blessing!

Tools of Restoration

So he decides to go home and now it gets good. The father sees him afar, but senses he may be apprehensive about coming home, so the father meets him in his mess with tools for restoration. The father does not demonstrate his love to his son in anticipation of his son's confession of wrong, but out of his own tender mercy. The father empties himself and assumes the form of a servant and runs to be reconciled with his estranged son. This does not make sense, but it meets the demands of justice. It is while we are still sinners that Christ proverb of that day, "slander by a whole town, and the gathering of a mob." The father plans to achieve reconciliation in public so no one in the village would dare to treat the lost son badly. The prodigal son will not later be banned from the people, if only the father can reach his son first. Many people do not realize how much damage they do when they are in their sin, but our father so loving that he will take our shame and cover it in his restorative love. Peter says, "love covers a multitude of sin." [1 Peter 4:8]

The lost young man's eyes are suddenly opened to the revelation that the only way home is through the father's heart. The father will not interrupt his children nor stop them from experiencing life; as you see in this parable. It is not as if the son began and the father spoke, no there was genuine repentance. Love was given first and it led to repentance. [Romans 2:4] The father then escorts his son back into the village as a sign of true restoration. That is the true essence of grace. The father comes and meets us where we are and gives us love and kisses we do not deserve, that is grace!!! We like the son think if we could serve the father we would be restored, but true restoration came for us, not from us. Jesus, our everlasting Father, [Isaiah 9:6] took the nature of a servant came down to earth and took our shame and pain and later died to reconcile us all back to our Heavenly Father. Love has met us all on our road of destruction. This is the symbol of the everlasting love Jesus, the Savior came to selflessly give. Will you receive the love of God in your heart today? He made a long trip, endured a cross, despised the shame, but he did it all for the joy of your salvation. [Romans 10:9-10]

Pledge of Allegiance

Numbers 30:1-2

Pledge of Allegiance Numbers 30:1-2

Summary

Moses said to the heads of the tribes of Israel: "this is what the Lord commands: ² When a man makes a vow to the Lord or takes an oath to obligate himself by a pledge, he must not break his word but must do everything he said. [Numbers 30: 1-2]

This message, explores the many facets of our lives where we are called to enter into solemn vows. Whether a vow to our country, companion, children, church, or to Christ, these commitments are precious in the sight of the Lord. Let us look at the definition of the words pledge and allegiance; A pledge is a solemn binding promise to do, give, or refrain from doing something. Allegiance signifies the loyalty or the obligation of loyalty, as to a nation, sovereign, or cause. Our pledge tells the witnessing parties we have the capacity for the assignment; it suggests we are sincere regarding our commitment to remain loyal. In other words, a pledge says you are able to perform the task! Remember your pledge to Christ, to the church, to your children, your companion, and your country and do all that you have set out to do.
