Say It Ain't So!!!!

"But stretch out your hand and strike everything he owns, and he will surely curse you to your face" [Job 1:11]

In the book of Job, Satan boldly proposed some accusations to God against Job; and is also saying the same types of things about us. He thinks he knows us but God knows us best. Satan just knew he was right about Job, "surely he will curse you to your face"; he sounds mighty cocky to me. And it was proven that he was and still is a liar and the father of lies. As Christians just because we have a natural reaction to a situation does not mean we have backslide. Crying, being angry, even feeling fearful does not always mean you need to go to the altar and repent. Faith does not mean you are made of steel, God gave us emotions. With emotions present and tears streaming down your face, the next word that comes out of your mouth will prove who you have faith in. Satan thought he had Job figured out, so he made accusations based on what he saw Job do regularly. He watched Job purifying his children, rising up early in the morning to offer burnt offerings for all of them. Job did this because he thought his kids had sinned and cursed God in their hearts. Satan is also watching and studying us, trying to get some dirt on us but whatever accusations he comes up with, let it not be so!!! (Job 1:11, John 8:44)

Job had it going on, he was blessed, naturally and spiritually. The bible says Job was the greatest man among all the people in the east. We can see why Satan thought he had Job figured out because most people with his status probably would have been exactly as he said. Satan didn't believe what God said about Job because he was going by Job's actions, but the bible says, "Man looks at the outside but God looks at the heart." [1 Samuel 16:7] Loving and serving God is personal, it's a heart issue and no one knows our heart like the Father. Even though God had blessed Job and his family, his children did not have the same heart towards God. Our actions may not always be righteous but our hearts should always be pure towards God and the things of God. We cannot fool God, he always knows the truth and he knows our hearts better than we do. An area of constant attacks may be his area of accusations against you.

Sometimes it seems like people enjoy being in bondage. I'm not talking about the kind of bondage where there is no freedom at all, or starvation or being beaten. One of the definitions of the word bondage is involuntary servi-

Psalm 126:5 says, Those who sow in tears, will reap with shouts of joy.

tude. People are involuntarily serving the enemy, yet enjoying it. But the bible did tell us that sin is good for a season. [Hebrews 11:24-26] People are blinded and drawn away to sin by their own lust and enticed. [James 1:14] This is what I meant when I said people enjoy being in bondage. Job's children were in a blessed place but deception and probably some rebellion was also present. Isn't it funny how the enemy tries to make our blessed place look like a cursed place? All the time his agenda is to get us out of the will of God. We have all been there, especially when we were in the world doing our own thing and having a good time, so we thought. We didn't know we were involuntarily serving and promoting Satan's agenda.

Satan has placed all sorts of influences, snares and traps around us. For us to fall into predicaments that we later regret. The lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life will lead us into places of involuntary servitude. [1 John 2:16] Remember sin will always take us further than we want to go, cost us more than we want to pay, and keep us longer than we want to stay. Have you ever found yourself doing something not on your agenda for that day, that's no coincidence? Something or someone persuaded you to do it. Remember the enemy studies us, just like he did Job. And he knows what and who to put in our paths to throw us off course. We think we get up every morning and make decisions of what we want to do; Satan is always on duty, waiting for the right moment to interrupt up our day. That is why acknowledging and seeking God daily is so vital. Have you ever seen a commercial before walking out the door that seduced you to do something that was not on the agenda? Although God was dealing with you about exercising and eating healthier, we swung into the IHOP parking lot because of the commercial- instead of obeying God's voice. SAY IT AIN'T SO!!! Satan is subtle, he doesn't overwhelm us with sin because he would get shut down. He uses one bait at a time until we're caught, hooked, line and sinker. And if God does not help us, we will find ourselves out of control. Which voice will we obey, God or our belly? Deuteronomy.30:19 says, "I have set before you, life and death..... choose life" I know we don't think it's that serious but the next decision we make can be a life or death decision. Adam and Eve didn't think the forbidden fruit would cause the damage it did; and we are still suffering today.

The word bondage makes us think about a person in chains and in a dark place. Slave is not a word many want to be associated with but the bible says we are slaves in Christ. [Romans 6:18] It seems like we are free agents, running the show but we're not. We are like puppets on a string and whoever we yield our members to is our master. In the right state of mind, nobody enjoys being in bondage outside of Christ. And that is the battlefield, our mental state of mind. The GO-SPEL is a spell, or bondage I don't mind being controlled by. Many have ruined their lives and the lives of others thinking they were in control. Now God has to come in and be the cleanup man. Cleaning is not easy and takes time. You may need to move some furniture around, heavy furniture for some of us. You might find some things that were lost while cleaning and have to reorganize. So as the song writer says, 'He gotta clean up, what we messed up, so we can start over again'.

There are laws in our land that we have to abide by and anyone who breaks these laws suffers the consequences. Even though we have laws in place, there are a high percentage of people who think they are above the law and they can out smart it. People break the law every day, the law of the land and God's law. There are some who think they are an exception to the rule. 'I won't get caught', although thousands are in jail for the same crime; that's deception. The bible tries to help us in Deuteronomy 30:19, "I have set before you, life and death, blessing and cursing, therefore chose the prince of this world cometh but he will find nothing in me. [John 14:30] life...” Choosing life is not a onetime decision, we have to choose life daily.

Even though God says in His word, that His ways are not our ways, neither His thoughts our thoughts,” why do we get discombobulated when the unexpected happens and start feeling some type of way towards God? God is not concerned about us always being comfortable, but effective. A good parent gives their children what is good for them, not always what’s good to them. God isn’t like earthly parents who want to be the popular parent. “Yea though we walk through the valley and the shadow of death we will fear no evil for thou art with me...” [Psalm 23:4] Yes sometimes we will go through some valley lows. Rejection can mean redirection if we trust God, pain can lead to promotion if we truly believe our times are in his hands. Why do we trust our GPS system more than God? When it is rerouting we don’t keep doing our own thing, we wait for the next word so we can continue on our journey. We do not know the way to our destiny, but God, our spiritual GPS, knows every highway, back road, even the traffic flow, if we trust him. [Isaiah 55:8, Psalm 23:4]

The bible says “all the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes...” [Proverbs 16:2] We do not like to look bad, so when the accuser starts harassing us, we must declare like Jesus did, “the prince of this world cometh but he will find nothing in me.” [John 14:30] “Let God be true and every man a liar.” [Romans 3:4] Jesus came to make us free from every spirit of bondage but it’s up to us to believe, receive and walk in our freedom. John 8:32 says, we shall know the truth and the truth shall make us free. Truth is only what God has said about us, so who’s report will we believe? We should expect an attack anytime bondage is being broken and advancement is close. The enemy is afraid of us advancing the kingdom of God. The Lord has already made so many things available to us as His children but we have to exercise our faith to receive them. Having faith doesn’t mean things will change immediately but having faith does mean change is on the way. Your issue might not get better today but since God said you are healed, I know He cannot lie, so I choose to believe it is so. (Isaiah 53:1, Proverbs 16:2, John 14:30 Romans 3:4)

God did not describe Job by his possessions but who he was in the spirit. If you were asked to define yourself, would you tell them about the things you have or who you are in God? God gives Satan permission to touch our stuff but not us. “Can we only accept good from God and not evil”? [Job 2:10] How is it that we can see God in acts of good and not discomfort? Things that challenge us that bring out the best in us. After the tragedy of losing everything, Job fell to the ground and worshipped, and said, Naked came I out of my mother’s womb, and naked shall I return thither: the Lord gave and the Lord hath taketh away; blessed be the name of the Lord. In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly. [Job 1:20-22] After all of that God allowed Job to experience, the accusations of the enemy backed fired. Let this be our testimony as well.

My Controversy Is My Confirmation

Part I

In our culture of the 21st century we experience a variety of topics that are controversial: Abortion, Sexual Orientation, Churches, Taxes, Climate Change, Gun Laws and Control, Drones, Gay Marriages, Medical Marijuana, and Obama Care/Health Care Laws, just to name a few, but the list goes on.

The title “MY CONTROVERSY IS MY CONFIRMATION” further solidifies that controversy has its pros and cons, but few people view it as a confirmation in their life. Usually when controversy breaks out in the life of a believer the first school of thought is “THIS HAS TO BE THE DEVIL.” Every expression of opposing views or differing of opinions is an opportunity to step back and evaluate the facts versus the truth.

The great man of faith, Abraham, was called out of idolatry, worshipping a God he could see, into believing in a God he could not see, which was and is controversial. Abraham does not just experience controversy in his belief, but also in his obedience.

In Genesis 12 God calls Abraham out of the place of familiar, Haran, into the place of unfamiliar (the place of Canaan). In the call he is instructed to leave his country and his relatives. Abraham faced with the controversy to leave relatives, now makes a decision to bring with him at least one relative, his nephew

Lot. The controversy of wars and outgrowth of land and disputes between servants became prevalent in the life of Abraham because he brought Lot with him; however it did not change God’s mind about the journey to Canaan.

Sometimes we will take a problem with us when instructed by God not to, and God who is faithful will still give us the promise.

Abraham’s wife, Sarah who is barren at the moment invokes a problem by giving Abraham permission to sleep with Hagar, her bondwoman, and they produced a son called Ishmael. Now Ishmael becomes what you think is the promise...but God does not need manipulation on our part to produce what He has promised, it only delays the promise.

-and the Lord granted his plea... [Genesis 25:21]

Time passes, Sarah becomes pregnant and gives birth to Isaac; the promise. Now her problem and her promise grow up together, and your mistake now mocks your miracle.

Sarah demands the bondwoman and her son be cast out!

Now there is controversy in the home and God confirms that the bondwoman and her son must be removed, but He makes a promise to Abraham that the son of the bondwoman will become a nation, because he is his seed.

Time continues to pass and Isaac becomes a man, forty years of age and is given a wife by the name of Rebekah. Sarah dies at one hundred twenty seven years old; Abraham remarries, and her name is Keturah and she bears children to Abraham. Scripture now embarks upon Isaac's life with Rebekah.

Genesis 25:19-25 New King James Version

This is the genealogy of Isaac, Abraham's son. Abraham begot Isaac. Verse 20 Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah as wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan Aram, the sister of Laban the Syrian. Verse 21 Now Isaac pleaded with the Lord for his wife, because she was barren; and the Lord granted his plea, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

Genesis 25:22

But the children struggled together within her; and she said, "If all is well, why am I like this?" So she went to inquire of the Lord. Verse 23 And the Lord said to her:

"Two nations are in your womb,

Two peoples shall be separated from your body;

One people shall be stronger than the other,

And the older shall serve the younger."

Verse 24 So when her days were fulfilled for her to give birth, indeed there were twins in her womb. Verse 25 And the first came out red. He was like a hairy garment all over; so they called his name Esau.

Verse 26 Afterward his brother came out, and his hand took hold of Esau's heel; so his name was called Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when she bore them.

The scripture gives us a picture of the promised child, Isaac praying for his wife Rebekah who is barren to become pregnant. The Lord grants his request and Rebekah becomes pregnant. Isaac does not settle for the situation the way it is, he does not say it is what it is, knowing that God has given us the ability to call those things that be not as though they are. He takes a position of controversy in another world. He does not contend in the natural or seen world, but he goes into opposition in the spirit world.

The promise child now marries a woman with a problem. Rebekah brings a barren problem to the table, and the promise does not get upset, he does not get mad and use tactics of the flesh to manipulate the spirit, but he does what he has been taught from his father, he begins to pray. He prays because he has to produce a people and the prayer in the spirit can open a barren womb in the natural.

Who better than Isaac to know this since he was the product of a barren woman? In Ministry there are promises God has given us and we find ourselves in barren places, planting fertile seed and producing absolutely nothing. The key is to work the realm of the spirit in order to produce in the natural. This is what Isaac did.

Isaac does not allow the controversy of barrenness for nineteen years to cause him to become discouraged, weary, or even hopeless; he does not give up, nor does he give out, but he perseveres until the controversy is ended.

Rebekah becomes pregnant and she experiences Hyper Emesis Gravidarum—a medical term for acute morning sickness. This is a possible indicator that a woman maybe pregnant with twins. It is a feeling of nausea and vomiting that can occur in the early stages of pregnancy. It, as uncomfortable as it is, is believed to be a good thing. It appears to be associated with a reduced risk of miscarriage and a greater chance that the pregnancy will have a healthy outcome. There lies the tension of this text, “If God has answered my prayer, why is it so hard to carry my blessing?” There seems to be significant sickness attached to the manifestation of the blessing---so she prays. There is a struggle on the inside for which I have no point of reference.

Fellowship with God

1 John 1:1-4

Summary

Fellowship with family - Father [v3] = Fellowship with Adam

Fellowship with God edifies the people on the importance of proper fellowship with God. Due to the nature, and need of man, fellowship with God is essential for newness of life. Notice the foundation of man's fellowship with God, is it based on the word, will, and way of God? Does that man believe what God says, is he a doer of God's Word? Man must realize sections three and four come as a package; blessings and barriers. There will always be life and death set before you. When we choose to remain in fellowship with God, we receive the blessings of fellowship, such as salvation, joy, and peace. Otherwise, we choose to allow barriers to overcome our thoughts causing us to speak ungodly disassociating with God. We must keep in mind to remain in fellowship with God, this is also our fellowship with one another.

I. Beginning of Fellowship [1 John 1:1-4]

A. Nature of Man

1. Sinful
2. Corrupt = Speech and actions
3. Defiant = Who does God think He is?

B. Need of Man

1. Dead
2. Disobedient = to God's word

C. New Birth

1. New Nature
2. New Creature
3. New Life
4. New Person
5. New Master

II. Basis of Fellowship [1 John 1:5-6]

Not every saved person has fellowship with God. Only those that walk in the light as He is in the light.

A. Word of God

1. Accept = believe what He says
2. Apply = be a doer of the word
3. Abide = Walk in God's Word - Light
4. Agree = Can to walk together except they agree.

A. Will of God

1. Sacrifice = deny self take up cross
2. Surrender = Be not conformed to this world.
3. Seeking = His will

A. Way of God

1. Light = Children of Light
2. Life = Gives abundant life
3. Leaning = Our needs— Strength (I'm learning to lean on Jesus)

III. Blessing of Fellowship [1 John 1:7]

A. Happiness

1. Saved
2. Joy
3. Peace
4. Contentment

B. Healthiness

1. Love
2. Forgiveness
3. Faith

IV. Barriers to Fellowship [1 John 1:8-10]

A. Ungodly Articulations

1. Dirty Jokes
2. Vulgar Language
3. Gossip
4. Slander

B. Ungodly Attitudes

1. Unconcern
2. Unforgiving
3. Bitter
4. Selfish
5. Resentful

C. Ungodly Actions

1. Steal
2. Cheat
3. Go to wrong places

D. Ungodly Affections = Things of the world
