Exercise Your Authority

Watch over your heart with all diligence, for out of it flows the issues of life. [Proverbs 4:23]

In this season we must pay attention to who we give our hearts to. In the natural, our heart is the most vital organ in our body, if it stops, everything stops. Why do we give our hearts so easily to those who have not proven themselves worthy? Proverbs 4:23 tells us, “watch over your heart with all diligence, for out of it flows the issues of life.” Issues as we know them are all matters of importance to be resolved. Let us talk about that little word issue. We would not have as many of these issues in life if we would obey this scripture, guard and watch over your heart. When we dismiss this word, it is a setup for a heart attack. When we put a guard over something, it is because we are trying to protect it or keep something out. God does not want us to allow certain things to get in our heart, thus he tells us to guard our hearts.

We will go through all kinds of things for the one who has our heart. Whatever they desire, we will try our best to please them, even if we do not feel like it. But because they have our heart we will at least try. When God truly has our heart, His desire becomes our desire.

Sometimes we let people into our Holy of Holies too soon. As soon as they say what we want to hear, and satisfy our flesh, they are in; the combination to the safe guard over our heart has been broken. We must be more like our Father, God, he does not let just any `ole body into his Holy of Holies. We have to be proven first then he will let us in. We do not make people prove themselves like God does.

Many are so desperate to have someone in their life that it does not take much. Do not sell your heart so cheaply! The wrong person, with the right words, right smile, and right bank account can gain access to our heart. Why is this so? Selah.

It is mentioned many times in the Bible, the old and new testaments, that we are to “LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND” (also translated as strength), but notice in all of them he mentions your heart first. Love Him with all your heart first. God knows when loving and pleasing him is a priority everything else comes second, third, fourth and so on. [Deuteronomy 30:6, Matthew 22:37] He wants our God said, He has placed His treasure in earthen vessels...

[2 Corinthians 4:7]

heart to be anchored in Him only. God does not want our hearts to be divided. He knows if it is, there will not be total commitment, therefore giving place for abandonment. Too many options are not always good. Sometimes when things are not going good in our eyes, we may turn to something we should not or even revert back to who we use to be.

God does not want anything or anybody to be able to turn our heart away from him. Romans 8:35 asks a question, "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?" Our prayer is nothing shall separate you; God did not spare his own Son, but delivered him over for all..." [Romans 8:32] God did not allow a little heart ache of the suffering of his Son to separate him from purpose. He did not hold him back because Jesus' heart was to do his Father's will. As a parent, we know that could not have been easy but his heart was dedicated to fulfilling the big picture--through hurt and pain, this must be; so Jesus was always focused and had the heart of his Father, he was always about His Father's business. He and the Father were one; there was always a united purpose. Luke 4:18-19 says, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives, recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed, to proclaim the favorable year of the Lord." Jesus was anointed for the people, the sick, the lost, orphans, widows, and the list goes on and on.

God has a heart for the people, or as the scriptures say--for the sheep. He is the good shepherd and the good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. [John 10:11] That is his hearts' desire. The things and people that are valuable to us are connected to our hearts. Matthew 6:21 says, "for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." If you have lost a loved one or misplaced something of value to you, there is a feeling of grief and loss. Why? They were considered important and valuable to you. Why did it hurt and bother you so bad, because you treasured that person. They meant a lot to you. You did not feel the hurt in your toe, you felt that hurt in your heart.

God said, He has placed His treasure in earthen vessels... [2 Corinthians 4:7] We are the earthen vessels he is referring to; yes, you have a treasure on the inside of you! What is that treasure? His Spirit. We must be counted special in order for God to place this gift in us. When we possess something that is valuable, we do not just lay it around anywhere, we put it in a special place. We choose a place where no one else will look. Well, that is pretty much what God did when he put his spirit in us. He put something valuable inside something special. So, if you did not know, you are special to God. Let Him have your heart and avoid the heart attacks. He wants it ALL.

My Controversy Is My Confirmation

Part II

My inward controversy has become far greater than my outward manifestation.

Many are struggling with the sense that God has blessed you, but it's been hard to hold some things down. The struggle is only confirmation that God has decided to bless you with a blessing that is exceeding, abundantly, above all that you can ask or think! (Ephesians 3:20)

The Lord was saying to Rebekah, that I'm not just going to give you a baby, but twins. She, without request, had to go through the process of being mature enough to manage the struggle or controversy of being blessed.

Have you ever dealt with the frustration of getting something you want, only to discover what you asked for drags along some residual issues that come along with being blessed? Bishop Jakes wrote a book years ago called

Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, [Ephesians 3:20]

"Can You Stand to be Blessed?" What many don't understand is this: "There is a down side to a high calling." Scripture says in Genesis 25:22, "And the children struggled together within her." God now answers the question, "Why does the blessing have these kind of side effects?"

Your flesh cannot manage the responsibility of spiritual purpose. Thus, the greater the purpose, the greater the strain of the flesh. What does that mean? This generation has missed this revelation and concept. There are no shortcuts to success; you have to prepare yourself through denial of some pleasure now, looking forward to the greater reward. In verse 23, God explains you have twins, two nations in your womb. Both have a major purpose. Just as you are called to great stages, but you prefer to be by yourself, Controversy. Whenever you are being pulled apart inside,

And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt.

[Matthew 26:39]

“This controversy is your confirmation.”

God has blessed Rebekah, and He has blessed her with twins. The birth of these twins, who were of the promise of Abraham, is now two nations. Jacob and Esau. Two Nations who are purpose-wrapped into distinct opposing manifestations. The Edomites and the Israelites are fighting to get out of the womb first.

The order of the blessing should be, legitimately, on the older or first one out, but God knows how to overrule common custom and tradition and put the blessing on the least likely. Jacob should not be the leader; but the Bible says the older that was stronger would ultimately have to serve the younger. The younger will have purpose-power, which will always trump planned-power.

The struggle continues with being loved by their parents. The father loved Esau and the mother loved Jacob. Jacob ends up with the blessing and the birthright.

Let me talk to Rebekah, You’ve had to wait for nineteen years...before finally conceiving. You had something within you that was hard to carry. It does not feel like what you were expecting. But you were carrying the manifestation of the struggle; God has allowed you to become pregnant with the thing you have been praying about. Don’t allow the difficulty of the struggle to cause you to abort your blessing. Though sometimes it may get violent...Don’t Abort! Double is coming! Know it is God! Don’t let the inward struggle cause you to make a rash decision. Rebekah asked why? When you know why, you can live with the struggle until Destiny is Born!

Jesus, as our example, experienced controversy but he did not allow the outward, circumstantial controversy cause him to abort his divine purpose. The controversy with no place to be born, but in a stable, did not stop the wise men from locating him. The controversy of the religious leaders who did not understand his proclamation, purpose, or power did not cause him to shut up, shut down, or run away. The controversy of no food to feed five thousand men, women, and children was only a confirmation of the power within to break it and bless it and multiply it so God could get the glory. The controversy of the storm after he gave the word, “go to the other side”! Controversies allow us to see that confirmations are not always subtle; sometimes they are loud and boisterous as the storm the disciples encountered while Jesus was on board.

God gives a word and every loud and boisterous event arises to keep you from the other side. But we should wake up our peace maker and speak to the controversy and let it know “greater is He that is in me, than he that is in the world.” But the greatest controversy for Jesus was not on the outside but inside. It roared louder than any storm, fiercer than any religious leader, louder than any beating that he took and sharper than the nails in his hands or feet, it made the piercing in his side seem like a minor cut compared to the agony of the controversy in the Garden of Gethsemane. (Matthew 26:39) The controversy he knew we would one-day wrestle with, that of carnal flesh man opposing our divine, or new nature. But Jesus did not leave us wondering if he would embraced the controversy or not; he goes head first into the controversy with prayer. He prayed his way through and fulfilled the purpose of dying for our sins and redeeming our lives from every curse of the law.

Embrace the controversy and allow the truth of God's word to confirm that this is right where God would have me to be!

Pledge of Allegiance

Numbers 30:1-2

Summary

Moses said to the heads of the tribes of Israel: “this is what the Lord commands: ² When a man makes a vow to the Lord or takes an oath to obligate himself by a pledge, he must not break his word but must do everything he said. [Numbers 30: 1-2]

This message, explores the many facets of our lives where we are called to enter into solemn vows. Whether a vow to our country, companion, children, church, or to Christ, these commitments are precious in the sight of the Lord. Let us look at the definition of the words pledge and allegiance; A pledge is a solemn binding promise to do, give, or refrain from doing something. Allegiance signifies the loyalty or the obligation of loyalty, as to a nation, sovereign, or cause. Our pledge tells the witnessing parties we have the capacity for the assignment; it suggests we are sincere regarding our commitment to remain loyal. In other words, a pledge says you are able to perform the task! Remember your pledge to Christ, to the church, to your children, your companion, and your country and do all that you have set out to do.

I. To my Country

- A. Fifty-six men signed Declaration of Independence two hundred thirty-seven years ago
- B. Men who put their money and life on the line for their country

II. To my Companion

- A. To love and to cherish
- B. Sickness and in health – for as long as we shall live
- C. Better or for worse

III. To My Children

- A. To protect with my life
- B. To tell them the truth- to love them regardless
- C. Never forsake them
- D. Show them the way to God and the ways of God

IV. To My Church

- A. Show spiritual and moral support
- B. Offer financial support
- C. Display faithfulness
- D. Teach the doctrines of church

V. To Christ

- A. To go – where ever
- B. To do – what ever
- C. To be – want he wants me to be
