Everything That Hurts Is Not from the Devil

For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life:
weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.
[Psalm 30:5]

Those of you who have been in the church for any amount of time, know the devil gets blamed for things he had nothing to do with, yep it's true he may be innocent. What if I tell you it could have been God who did it? (Don't look at me with that tone of voice and don't stop reading.) The people who hurt us the most is not our enemy but those closest to us, our familiar friends not strangers.

We are too smart (so we think) when it comes to strangers entering into our holies of holies but kind of naive when it comes to those close to us. We let our guards down and get blindsided by those closest to us.

Kids sometime entertain the enemy's thoughts, thoughts that their parents are their enemies. We know that is the furthest thing from the truth. Nobody likes to be told no or that they are wrong. When told no, feelings get hurt but that does not mean your parents hate you or are mad at you; neither are they being mean. Could it be that because they love you and know because of experience that that thing or person is not good for you is the reason for their response. But because you did not get your way, your mind goes to left field.

The bible says, "For all the promises of God in him are yes, and in him Amen," notice the scripture says the promises of God are yes, not what we want is yes. [2 Corinthians 1:20]

As children of God, we may have our eyes set on something but God does not allow it to happen like we thought it would. What do we do? Do we get mad at God, like kids do toward their parents? Do we give thanks and keep it moving or do we try to force the issue and get real spiritual and make a bigger mess than before? God told me, "Just because we are attached and want something real bad that doesn't mean it's Him." Have you ever wanted something so badly and said God is dealing with me, this must be God, but that wasn't the case. Remember we still have a natural, fleshly side. God knows what is best for us and everything we want is not always best for us. If God says no, even though it hurts, even though you don't like it, ask for the strength to let it go and trust Him. We do not always

Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD [Isaiah 54:1]

agree or understand our Father, but He did tell us that His ways are not our ways, neither His thoughts our thoughts. But they are so much higher than ours. [Isaiah 55:9]

The bible says, "For all the promises of God in him are yes, and in him Amen," notice the scripture says the promises of God are yes, not what we want is yes. [2 Corinthians 1:20] If what we want is not in line with His promises, yes may not be the answer we receive and somebody's feelings might get hurt. I do not know where this mentality came from, that God is supposed to cater to us, like spoiled brats, when in reality it's totally the opposite. If God says let it or them go, weeping may endure for the night....but let it go. [Psalm 30:5] We may not see it at that moment but God has something better for us. [2 Corinthians 4:17] His grace is sufficient and we will live through it. [2 Corinthians 12:9] God needs us to die to our will and obey His. The more we obey, it lessens our chance to be hurt.

Some people do not recover from hurts very well. But by the grace of God when we experience hurt or disappointments, God delivers us out of them all. [Psalms 34:19] God needs some soldiers who can bounce back and have an attitude that says: none of these things move me. [Acts 20:24] God is not so much concerned about our feelings, because they change with the wind. He wants us to be more like Him, the same today, yesterday, and forever. [Hebrews 13:8] Jesus was touched by the feelings of our infirmities but He was not moved. [Hebrews 4:15] He had His moments, like we all do, but he came to Himself and said nevertheless, not my will but thine be done. God has an expected end for our lives; He is the only one who knows what it is going to take to get us there. There is a remnant of people for all of us to reach. Your anointing may not be my anointing, but God knows what we must go through in order to be equipped for those people.

And still today, when things come against us that are meant for evil, with God's permission, God will use it for our good.

None of our mess ups catches Him by surprise. If we get off track God knows how to re-route and still have us end up in the right place. God does not just have good things in store for us; He has great things laid up for us. To whom much is given, much will be required. [Luke 12:48]

In Exodus chapter 1 the new king feared the sons of Israel. He notices that the sons of Israel were more and mightier than his people, so he appointed taskmasters to afflict them with hard labor. But his plan backfired, he thought he was going to break them but the more they afflicted them the more they grew. The people grew in number and in strength. And still today, when things come against us that are meant for evil, with God's permission, God will use it for our good. [Exodus 1:1-12, Romans 8:28] Yes you read it right, with God's permission. Satan is still a fallen angel, he is not sovereign. He does not just do what he wants to do; he still has to answer to God. There is only one that is sovereign and His name is Jehovah. Remember in Job 1:6-7, God was having a meeting with the sons of God, angelic host, and guess who else was reporting, Satan. To know that Satan reports to

God sounds crazy doesn't it. You know what sounds even crazier, that we fear Satan who reports to our daddy.

There are many scriptures in my bible about fearing God but none about fearing Satan. Think about this, if your sibling came to you with instructions from your father, what would you do? You should stop everything and begin doing what you were told to do. Your immediate response to obey was not because you fear your sibling, but because you fear your father from whom the instructions came. Nothing happens to us that God does not allow, if He allows it, some good is coming out of it. So relax, perfect love cast out all fear. God will not let anything happen to us to hurt us and He will not allow too much on us. [1 John 4:18] [1 Corinthians 10:13] Hurt and affliction is good for us sometimes because there are things in us that need to be broken and it might hurt for the moment but there is always a bigger purpose. Do not despise the discipline of the Lord. God uses discipline to educate, train, and enlighten us

Speaking the WORD?

Take Financial Authority

Running over with blessings

- ♦ God wants me wealthy with a reason
- ♦ I'll speak this word until I'm running over with blessings
- ♦ I'm on my way to a wealthy place.
- ♦ God wants me to have money with a plan
- ♦ I'll speak this word until I'm running over with blessings!
- ♦ Thou has caused men to ride over our heads,
- ♦ We went through the fire, we went through the water, but thou brought us out into a wealthy place.
- ♦ There's money in my mouth. I'll speak it out of my mouth.
- ♦ I believe that I receive, Double, Double, in every area of my life this year.
- ♦ I call my house and all my assets paid for,
- ♦ I believe that I receive super natural provision today.
- ♦ I command the blessings of God and the favor of God to over take my life and my family's life.
- ♦ Send now prosperity.
- ♦ Thank you Lord for meeting all my financial needs so that I have more than enough to give into the Kingdom of God.

I believe that I receive, for our good to share His holiness. [Psalm 119:71] [Hebrews 12:3-11] [Psalm 30:5] In the end we will be stronger, wiser, and better because of our afflictions. A similar scenario took place with the African American race, who were once in slavery and afflicted to break their spirits and strip them of their identity. Blacks were oppressed and kept ignorant; but because they knew God, He gave them strength.

The more they were afflicted the more they grew. [Nehemiah 8:10]

God wants a relationship with His children. Often times when things are going good for us, we tend to get slack in the relationship. If it were not for hurts and hard times, God might not hear from His children. We begin to enjoy the blessings and forget the one who blesses. But God knows how to close the gap. When unpleasant things happen in life, they seem to bring us closer to God. Remember your heavenly Father loves you and everything He allows is working for our good. [Psalms 119:65-75] [Romans 8:28]

The Practicality of Faith: A Lifestyle Not a Science

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour
[1 Peter 5:8]

All God needs for you to do is make up in your mind that you will not be a victim anymore. With victory begins a quality decision. To receive any promise of God it requires a step of faith. Since Jesus is the author and finisher of our faith, we must begin by seeking him for the answer.

In the natural world, when you are doing business, the more you know about a product or services the less likely you will be taken advantage of. The same is true about your adversary, the more you know about him, the devil, the less he will be able to get over on you. Our text says he prowls around like a roaring lion looking for a victim. First, let us define a victim: someone who has suffered loss by being swindled or duped by some act, condition or circumstance. Therefore, Satan is searching for individuals who appear deceivable, and easy to take advantage of. Notice the text gives you some insight on the devil's limited power, because if he has to look for someone, then it means he cannot destroy everyone. The victims of his sinister plans will be those who do not possess a solid understanding of the word God. The Bible says my people are not destroyed because we have a mean devil, but because of a lack of knowledge.

This cycle of victimization can be destroyed, but it begins by receiving the anointing that comes through God's word.

This cycle of victimization can be destroyed, but it begins by receiving the anointing that comes through God's word. We must possess a practical understanding of who the enemy is and how he operates. No better way to do that than to first establish who he is not. He is not some fictitious red man with horns and a long tail, he is not a race of people, and he is not even your spouse. He is not a flesh and blood individual, though he may manifest himself through various people, but he is a cruel maniacal, spiritual force that operates through the force of fear to steal, kill, and destroy. He has so shrewdly wrapped himself up in this world's system that most people do not even believe he still exists. The world has embraced Satan today as if he is not the Prince of Darkness.

Fear, as we noted, has suddenly become a very marketable commodity. Its lineage has marred societies, separated races, divided kingdoms and terrorized communities. Fear is a ruthless and savage foe that only seeks to paralyze and destroy its opponents. You wonder how something that is so hideous can be embraced and accepted by our society. Well, I will tell you how- by making it an acceptable way of life.

Breaking the Chains Part 1

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. <sup>2</sup>And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. [Romans 12:1,2]

Until your revelation becomes greater than your environment you will always live a life of containment. Oftentimes we allow those things around us to define us. How many recognize that you are not your BMW; neither are you your trouble. Sometimes we allow the circumstances of life to define who we are. People fail, but that does not make them failures. Sometimes we keep identifying people with the place they made the mistake. What we do is tell them where they failed, and identify them by their environment or circumstance instead of identifying them by what is on the inside of them. As we look around, there are people with things inside them that you would not believe. There are dreams inside of people you would not even imagine. Greatness is wrapped up inside people who are near you, but have not realized their potential.

The key to unlimited living is to not allow that which is around us to define who you are. A believer has to let that which is inside their heart define them. You must understand God never changes a life from the outside in but from the inside out. Many believers are discouraged due to the lack of knowledge of God's process. When God begins to work in our lives, He moves on the inside of our souls and works out His will. By working from the inside out He changes us internally before He Changes us externally.

The spirit of a man is the lamp of the Lord, searching all the inner depths of his heart. [Proverbs 20: 27] The human spirit is where God illuminates a man's life. That is why it is more important you see with your spirit than you see with your eyes, "for we walk by faith, not by sight." This is also true of your learning; belief begins with hearing God's word. God illuminates your life, not from what you may be seeing, hearing, or experiencing in your situation but from inside your born again spirit.

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.
[Psalms 119:105]

This means when His word comes into my life it will show me how to live and where to go. Because God illuminates your life from the inside out, you will know what to do because of what He is projecting from the inside of you. I like to compare this principle to driving a car at night; you are able to see not from the light shining in, but the light shining out. If you are not careful the light shining in from the outside (the brightness of your situation) can be deceptive, blind you and cause an accident. On the other hand, the light that illuminates from your soul can lead you to a prosperous life.

He is able to do exceedingly,

Real power is soul power; you must possess self-authority and declare, “Greater is he that is within me than he that is in the world!” [1 John 4:4] abundantly above all you can ask, think, dream or even imagine according to the power that works in you. [Ephesians 3:20] If there is nothing going on inside you, then there will be nothing going on outside of you, because your life is always dictated by what is going on in your inner man. In other words you can take somebody who is full of faith and full of potential and drop them in the midst of the most adverse situations and in a year they will have turn it in to a beautiful garden. These world changers change their world from the inside out. On the other hand you can drop people full of anger, misery, failure, disappointment, disillusionment, bitterness and offenses and within a year's time they will turn the most precious, lucrative opportunity into a holy mess. Why? Because we do not live our lives by the outside in, but live our lives based on the things inside our hearts.

If you are going to enjoy life to the fullest you have to catch hold to this revelation that inside your spirit dwells the greatest power known to man, The Soul. Beloved, I wish that you prosper and be in health even as your soul prospers. [3

John 2] Real power is soul power; you must possess self-authority and declare, “Greater is he that is within me than he that is in the world!” [1 John 4:4]

God in you is greater than your debt. God in you is greater than your disappointment. God in you is greater than your obstacles. When God is in you, He is greater than all the stuff going on around you. So if God says you can, you can. If God says you can buy it, you can buy it. What determines my ability is not what is around me, but what is in me. Healing must first become a part of your spirit then it will show up in your body. The same is true of prosperity, when it becomes a part of your spirit, then it will show up in your pocket book. If a person does not have a prosperous spirit, no matter how much money you give him, he will always be broke.

How many people recognize that which happens in their lives begins on the inside. The spirit of a man is the lamp of the Lord. It is almost like the internet, when you find some material that you want to download onto your computer you first download into the mainframe. Then the material manifests itself on your printer. Ok, again this is how God works. All of your promises are in a spiritual atmosphere; they are hanging out there waiting on you to grab hold of them by faith. You claim them by faith and you download them into your spirit (inside), not your mind, or your feelings. That is carnality when you discern God based on feelings alone. If you are not feeling it on Tuesday and on Sunday, you do not know whether you believe it or not. But when you download the promise of the word into your spirit and it gets on the inside of you, when all hell is breaking loose, you stand in faith and authority declaring, “I will bless the Lord at all times!” What you download into your spirit you have to process through your soul (CPU) in order to manifest (print) in your world. Many of us are not having difficulty with downloads; it is the process through our soul that causes us to get bound up. Here is why, because we have not learned to think on the level where we have been Anointed!

If I do not think on the level I have been anointed, God will deposit things in my spirit that my brain and my attitude will lock up and never manifest in my life. So it will not be because there is a big devil, but because I did not do what the scripture taught me in renewing my mind to think on the level I am anointed. [Romans 12:12] Failure to manifest those revelations God gives you are called "missed opportunities." So when God gives us revelations it is not just for your entertainment and information. The church is not suffering due to a lack of information, but rather a lack of Transformation. When Heaven downloads it in your spirit, we have an obligation to process the "order" in our souls. Again, if you do not have any prosperity in your soul, you will not have it in your body or your finances. [3 John 2] That is why we have loads of people in the church who have spirit prosperity but no soul poverty.

What happens is our spirit will grab things in the eternal realm. The spiritual atmosphere of blessings has been here, but we must lay hold to it. Pledge of Allegiance

Summary

Moses said to the heads of the tribes of Israel: "this is what the Lord commands: <sup>2</sup> When a man makes a vow to the Lord or takes an oath to obligate himself by a pledge, he must not break his word but must do everything he said. [Numbers 30: 1-2]

This message, explores the many facets of our lives where we are called to enter into solemn vows. Whether a vow to our country, companion, children, church, or to Christ, these commitments are precious in the sight of the Lord. Let us look at the definition of the words pledge and allegiance; A pledge is a solemn binding promise to do, give, or refrain from doing something. Allegiance signifies the loyalty or the obligation of loyalty, as to a nation, sovereign, or cause. Our pledge tells the witnessing parties we have the capacity for the assignment; it suggests we are sincere regarding our commitment to remain loyal. In other words, a pledge says you are able to perform the task! Remember your pledge to Christ, to the church, to your children, your companion, and your country and do all that you have set out to do.
