Keep Speaking the WORD!

Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.⁷ For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. [2 Timothy 1:6,7]

Have you ever heard of the saying “the truth shall set you free?” Well, I have a question, What does the word “truth” stand for in your life? In the life of a believer there is only one truth, and that is the Word of God. 2 Timothy 4:2 reads, Preach the word; be prepared in season and out of season; correct, rebuke, and encourage – with great patience, and careful instruction. (New International Version) If we are ever going to be truly effective in the Kingdom of God, we must learn to read, learn to live, and finally learn to speak the Word of God. Every day we wake up, we are blessed because we have been given another opportunity for God’s glory to be given in and through our lives. Just keep speaking the word and watch how God’s truth continues to set us FREE in Jesus Name!

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Stay on Board!

Thank you for supporting this month's issue of The Conductor Magazine, we pray that its contents not only bless the readers and doers of His Word but that you would pass it on to a friend, co-worker, or relative that could use a Word of inspiration to live on purpose each day they rise.

This month's articles have one word in common, holy. God looks forward to and absolutely loves guiding and watching us strive towards HOLINESS! How does God make this happen? One way is by watching how well we work towards doing away with old/negative mindsets and behaviors. He guides us toward truth and watches how we receive and apply it to our lives. In this month's issue the Columnist both provide us with a different ways of thinking about the word holy, by way of mindset and behavior.

As we keep speaking the word of God, may we always remember that "We Need the Holy Spirit" (the mindset of Christ). We possibly need to re-think our behaviors and the company we keep. Ask yourself a really important question "What's Wrong with Being Holy?" The answer is in your behavior.

Sincerely,
The Editors

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. ¹⁷For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. [John 3:16-17]

Receive Jesus today by believing in your heart and confessing with your mouth!

“Heavenly Father, I come to you now, admitting that I am a sinner. Right now I choose to turn away from sin and I ask you to cleanse me of all unrighteousness. I believe that your son, Jesus died on the cross to take away my sins. I also believe that God raised Him from the dead, so that I might be forgiven of my sins and made righteous through faith in him. I call upon the name of Jesus Christ to be the savior and Lord of my life. Jesus, I choose to follow you and ask that you fill me with the power of the Holy Spirit. I declare that right now, I am a child of God. I am free from sin and full of the righteousness of God. I am saved in Jesus’ name. Amen!”

For in Jesus,
my love for you
is revealed.

What's Wrong With Being Holy?

For I am the Lord your God; so consecrate and sanctify yourselves and be holy, for I am holy; neither defile yourselves with any manner of thing. For I am the Lord who brought you up out of the land of Egypt to be your God, therefore you shall be holy for I am holy. [Leviticus 11:44-45]

God is a Holy God and He is in a class all by Himself. God is not trying to be like anybody else, He is and always has been comfortable in His own skin. Those who have tried to be like Him have all failed because no other god compares to our God. Just like any other good father would desire his children to be like him, so does God. Leviticus 11:44-45 says, "For I am the Lord your God; so consecrate and sanctify yourselves and be holy, for I am holy; neither defile yourselves with any manner of thing. For I am the Lord who brought you up out of the land of Egypt to be your God, therefore you shall be holy for I am holy." Notice the scripture says defilement comes from our own doing. It is a choice we make, no matter what kind of influences are around us, we are the ones who make the final decision. So pointing the blame at others really doesn't matter. Bad or evil communication still corrupts good manners and morals. In Leviticus 19 God told Moses to tell the Israelites. "You shall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy." Then He gave them some guidelines and expectations and summed it up by saying, "You shall observe all my statutes and ordinances and do them, I am the Lord." God knows what it takes for us to walk in true holiness. He did not leave it up to us to figure it out! All we have to do is follow His instructions. [1 Corinthians 15:33]

When God said be holy, He was not giving us a choice in the matter; He was telling us to be holy, not mean or bossy. He knows what is best for us. God knows the perks and consequences of living or not living a holy life. The Bible says, "There is a way that appears to be right, but in the end it leads to death." People seem to think if the majority are doing something, it must be the right thing. But that is the furthest thing from the truth. We quote God's word in Genesis 1:26 "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion." This means we are to be the representation of our Father, to resemble Him and imitate Him as His children. Since no one has ever seen the Father, we know this is not talking about physical appearance. Therefore, holiness is not only about how we

...an attitude of the heart which we inherit from God when we obey His word.

wear our clothes, more so, it is an attitude of the heart which we inherit from God when we obey His word. [Proverbs 14:12, NIV]

The Bible says, “Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: ... Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you. And I will be a Father unto you...” [2 Corinthians 6:14-18] Being yoked together with someone who is not going in the same direction can cause problems in your progress. Sooner or later there will be some compromise. Can two walk together except they be agreed? I don’t think so.

For instance, something as simple as deciding on dinner could cause separation. If you want Chinese and they want Soul Food, that disagreement is going to cause some form of separation unless someone compromises. As believers, light and darkness do not have any fellowship. They are opposites. I know separation is hard on the flesh but who means more to us, them or God? And God told us, if we are a friend of this world, we are enemies to Him. We should be at odds with anything that does not magnify the Kingdom of God. Whenever we are put in a situation where we find ourselves pressured to abandon our Christian morals or principles, something or somebody must go. [James 4:4, Amos 3:3]

Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,
[2 Timothy 1:9]

Obviously we all came out of the world, operative words came out of. Now that we are out of the world, what are we trying to go back to? Yes, I know deliverance can be a process but are we really trying to change. I think sometimes Christians want to be saved and still have a little bit of the world also. You’ve heard the saying, “Have your cake and eat it too.” Think about this, since we came out of the world, there had to be something in the world that drove us to Christ. But I think we forget about that. Whatever it was that drove us to Christ, the Lord Jesus Christ has provided relief, and now we think we can have the best of both worlds. How crazy is that?! When someone who has been trying to escape from an abusive relationship, returns after being made free, they have not made proper sense of the matter! This is how we look sometimes. God accepts us in His family, blesses us, loves us like we are supposed to be loved and then the one who use to abuse and mistreat us wants to come back into the picture. He is saying all the right things. They even look like they have changed. What do you do? If you are not careful, you will find yourself in a worse state than before.

I often hear people say “It’s too hard!!!” Haven’t you

GOLD NUGGETS If it's going to work it has to come from God. —Dr. Ford

heard anything worth having is not easy, but it will be worth it? Hard how? Because God is a good God and He does not ask us to do anything we cannot do, physically. Remember God is a rewarder! When we overcome the hard areas of our lives, there will be a reward on the other side. It is our flesh that cannot obey God. The warfare between our flesh and our spirit is where the problem lies; whichever is the strongest will win. God saved us and called us to live a holy life, not because we deserved it, but because that was His plan from the beginning of time. He wants to show us his grace through Christ Jesus. [2 Timothy 1:9] Can we be rebellious and stiff-necked and be a true light in this dark world? We must be steadfast in who we are in God and allow His holiness to shine through us. The enemy would love for us to despise the very presence of God in our lives and forfeit the blessings that comes with being Holy. The very thing we despise and get talk about is the same thing God wants to use to make us great. Our uniqueness makes us great. Romans 12:1 says, “Present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind...” Will the real Christians please stand up!!! Is there anybody who has a rigid allegiance to God anymore? A firm, steadfast, stubborn dedication to the things of God? Are there anymore sold out Christians in the world today who are not scared to say for God I live and for God I die!

We need you, the world is waiting for you and the Father is looking for you. We cannot pick and choose when and where we are going to be holy. We should be holy, 24/7. Be instant in season and out of season...holy all the time. God is not erratic. When we are unfaithful, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny who He is. Since God's people should be a cut above, in my opinion, we ought to be classy people. Elegant and stylish, having high standards of personal behavior, admirably skillful and graceful people. 1 Peter 2:9 says it like this, “But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people, that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.” [2 Timothy 1:6-9; 2 Timothy 2:13; 2 Timothy 4:2]

Holiness is still right,

Lady Tracy Ford

We Need the Holy Ghost

See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, (16) redeeming the time, because the days are evil. (17) Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is (18) and be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; [Ephesians 5: 15-18]

If you were prosecuted for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to do so? If we are ever going to possess an effective case for Christ in our lives, there has to be some evidence of an experiential knowledge that God has changed our lives. With that being said, I have a question, have you been changed? I am not talking about your dance, your shout, or your knowledge of the Bible, but Bible changed! Real change that is sound and practical. How are you different now, than you were before? We must focus on our behavior and mindset and not just our outward appearance. If there is no internal change, you are like what the old saints say, “a painted old barn.” Peter talks about the trial of faith that will come to try every born again Believer. This trial is designed to fortify, affirm, and expose who we are in the Lord. Trials usually do not go good when you do not have enough evidence to support your case. [1 Peter 1: 7, 4: 12]

We know that we have been changed when we meet the standard of the one and only God. 'Be ye holy, for I am holy.' [1 Peter 1:16] This holiness cannot be acknowledged outside of the work of the Holy Spirit. This work is not just stimulation, inspiration, or celebration, but as Jesus said in John 6:63, “it is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are Spirit, and they are life”. It is the seal of the Holy Spirit that authenticates us as Believers. Ephesians says “He is the earnest of inheritance”. [Ephesians 1:14]

In our text the scripture says, “Be Filled with the Spirit”. [Ephesians 5:18] The plurality of this verb means this command is addressed to every believer. This verb was also written in the passive voice which means we cannot fill ourselves, but they must be acted upon by the Holy Spirit. You will know when this is accomplished, because the Holy One is in total control of our personality. I want to suggest to you that this is the most practical revelation of what it means to live a life that has been changed by the Lord.

The key to this passage is not marked in any special gifting. Nowhere in this text is there mention of Spiritual Gifts. It is not a passage where the emphasis is on the gift of tongues or interpretation of tongues or any other Spiritual gift as listed in 1 Corinthians 12. More so, this endowment has to do with how you treat people or how we relate to others. If you are being filled with the Holy Spirit, the text says you will:

“Be ye Holy, for I am Holy.” [Leviticus 11:44]

- ◆ Encourage others
- ◆ Speak to others
- ◆ Give thanks always
- ◆ Submit yourselves one to another [Ephesians 5:18-21]

All because you are filled with the joy and celebration of the Holy Spirit; God is now controlling your behavior which is seen in your treatment of mankind. Remember the original purpose of why the Holy Spirit was given to men, was to “Be Witnesses”. [Acts 1:8] Not only to witness to others, but to be one who has a first-hand experience with the presence of God. This encounter empowers us in our everyday witness to the world of the difference it makes when the life changing power of God comes in and then on an individual. In the omission of the church being filled with the Holy Spirit, means the church will be unable to execute the mission of God as he has ordained. The sad thing about this is that the church has confused function with unction. Due to the fact that we are functioning we readily assume we have and unction, His blessing of power. It has been stated that if the Holy Spirit was called out of the world about 95% of what we are doing would go on and we would brag about it.

But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. [Acts 1:8]

One of the greatest needs of the world today and especially for every Believer, I believe is to be filled with God's Holy Spirit. [Ephesians 5:18] This absence of God's Spirit is why malfeasance is going on in our communities;

we can relate to each other. Flesh and blood alone is not enough to overcome the racial and sexual divide. We need the Holy Spirit! Why are we trying to do anything without a working knowledge of God's Spirit at hand? Being filled is not the privilege of the few but a prerogative, demand, birth right, entitlement, and a divine responsibility of all believers. The text says be filled. Be filled should be translated as a present command “you start continuing to be controlled.” Paul is urging these Christians to find their fullness through a higher sphere and not external influences. Filled is a verb that means- that which wholly takes possession of a thing. This text is written in the continual present tense. Which means to continually be filled, not a one time act, it is an ongoing action, that speaks of a way of life.

My Dear Friends, in conclusion, if we are going to impact people, we must first be changed by the overwhelming influence of God's Spirit. Jesus promised in John 14:12 that “greater works” will we do if we believe on Him. Well, what was on Him you may ask? Scripture declares the Spirit of the Lord was upon him. [Luke 4:18, Acts 10:38] The command still stands today, if we are going to be like Jesus, we also need to be filled daily with the Spirit. No more LUI's (Living Under the Influence) of worldly things that do not please God, but daily being filled with the Spirit. The Spirit is a substance with which a man's personality can be filled, just as his body can be filled with wine! Christians, open your heart today and receive God's Spirit upon your life. Become an active, operative, energizing force for God each day. We who are saved by the Spirit, but if we are to continue to function at maximum efficiency we must continually be filled with that selfsame Spirit. If we are going to continue to hit the mark of Christ in our lives we must, everyday. ask God to fill me with your Spirit until I overflow and He will do it! [Luke 11:13] "Finally my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the Power of His might." [Ephesians 6:10]

God Bless,
Pastor Ford

Like It Never Happened

God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. [1 Corinthians 1:9]

Vernice Sanders of Wisconsin, named among the healed of the Lord, redeemed, more than a conqueror, saved and set free by the Lord is a survivor. Overcoming colon cancer in 2004, a heart attack in 2009, and two strokes in May of 2016, Ms. Sanders stands with us today sharing her faith in Jesus. In May, doctors told her she had suffered from two strokes and had blood on her brain; Ms Sanders said, “but God is faithful! God sent his angels to let me know it is well. Now it’s like it never happened.” Ms Sanders shares these words from God’s heart to hers: Go tell it...over the mountains what God has done. “He has never left my side”, says Ms. Sanders.

When daughter, Tawan Sanders, received the news she tells us she danced and praised in great expectation that God would perform a good work. She had her Pastor pray, he prayed, it’s going to be like it never happened. Two days later, daughter, Tawan flew to Wisconsin to find her mom discharged from the hospital and resting at home! “We are in awe of how God moved,” says Tawan. When my family and I relocated to Georgia, I couldn’t understand why I was separated from my family. Now I thank God for the separation and always remember we are connected by the blood!

Closing the Door to the Word

Ezekiel 12: 1-2

Ezekiel 12: 1-2

Summary

When we close the door to the Word of God, we shut out all that God has in store for our lives. How can we live on purpose if we are excluding the entire “purpose instructor?” which is the Word of God. God gave us His Word to provide us instructions regarding our purpose (destiny), yet we barely sit still long enough to read, mediate, reflect upon, and apply its revelation to our daily lives. This outline will give insight, encouragement, and power to those who truly activate its contents in their lives. We must read the word, there is no way around it! We are only as effective as our knowledge of his plan, his purpose, and his word in our life...we do not have the right to create our own plans, purpose, or word...God has done it for us and it is all between the pages of a book called, The Holy Bible! We need the Word to show us the way to eternal victory as we live on purpose in Christ Jesus. Be blessed people of God!
