Keep Speaking the WORD!

Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes. [Deuteronomy 11:18]

When the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.

² Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them. ³ The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad. ⁴ Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south. ⁵ They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. ⁶ He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him. Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee. [Isaiah 60:1]

I believe with all my heart that now is the time for another Exodus for God's people; a time to be completely free from bondage. Now is the time to walk in, live in and move in our God-given destiny. No more to being okay with barely getting along and being average. Average is not fitting for the King's kids; remember we are a reflection of Him. We are royalty and God has so much more for us. It is our time to arise and shine and allow the Glory of God to come upon us. [Isaiah 60:1] We have been the tail, now it is time to be the head. We have borrowed enough and now it is time to own. The promised land is waiting for us and now it is time for us to go up and possess that which rightfully belong to us. [Deuteronomy 28:13]

God has a good plan for our lives. [Jeremiah 29:11] We, his children, whom have been chosen and adopted into his royal family have an inheritance awaiting us that is mind blowing. 1 Corinthians 2:9 says it like this, "eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him." When God blesses, he always does it big. God uses strategic planning; there is a

I believe with all my heart that this is the time for another exodus for God's people.

purpose and plan for everything he allows. If we would just let God be God, He is setting the stage and stacking the deck for us to be blessed. God has some things laid up for us and now is the time for us to enjoy our inheritance. The longer it takes us to get there, the more interest is being accrued. [Ecclesiastes 3:1]

Similar to our own children, some parents start saving and putting things away for their children at birth or at a very early age and after years of growing and maturing their inheritance is increasing also. When the child gets older and shows himself responsible, then he can possess what was laid up for him a long time ago. When we open a bank account for our children, the parent and the child are the only authorized users, however because the child is a minor he can not make any withdrawals without the parent. When the child reaches the age of accountability, he can then

But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation... [1 Peter 2:9]

transact without the parent. God has a blessing with your name on it, and no other person can withdraw from your account except you.

God is a God who keeps covenant, his promises are sure. In Deuteronomy 9:25-27, Moses was interceding for God's people and he told God to remember the promise you made. "Remember thy servants Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; do not look at the stubbornness of this people or at their wickedness or their sin." Moses was saying to God, you can not go back on your word because of the actions of these people. God has been with us through our entire wilderness experience. He has been long suffering and patient with us. He never left us even though we did not always cooperate and totally obey him. Deuteronomy 9:5 says, "it is not because of your righteousness or for the uprightness of your heart that you are going to possess their land, but it is because of the wickedness of these nations that the Lord your God is driving them out before you, in order to confirm the oath which He swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

In Exodus 3:8 God said, "So I have come down to deliver them (us) from the power of the Egyptians, and to bring them up from that land to a good and spacious land, to a land flowing with milk and honey, unto the place of the Canaanite....." God sees, and has seen our afflictions and has heard our cry. [Exodus 3:7] Think about it like this, no parent likes to hear their children cry; and neither does God. The scripture says when the righteous cry the Lord hears them and delivers them out of all their troubles. Psalms 9:12 says, He does not forget the cry of the afflicted. He is a stronghold in times of trouble. [Psalm 9:9] When we look unto the hills from whence cometh our help, help is on the way. He is coming like a parent with a mission to rescue their child. When we stop acting grown and manish and stop thinking we have the answer, then grace steps in to help. Affliction and suffering are sometimes good for us, they help us grow and appreciate deliverance when it comes. Only God knows how long we must suffer to get the revelation. It may take forty years or not, only he knows. [Psalms 121:1, Psalm 34:17] The Lord told Moses to send twelve men, a leader from each tribe, to spy out the land which he is about to give to them. Go see what the land is like; find out whether the people who live there are strong or weak, few or many? Is the land good or bad? And bring back some fruit of the land. [Numbers 13:17-20] This tells me that we are not going to just walk into the promised land without a challenge. The land is already occupied but they have to go so God's chosen can go in. Whomever is occupying the land whether the Canaanite, Hittite, Amorite, Perizzite, Hivite or the Jebusite they are not going to give it up without a fight. But God said it's ours, so guess what, promised land here we come. God will lead us into victory.

After God has delivered us and we are eating good, living good, satisfied with no lack, and everything we have is multiplied and better than it has ever been, we

The Practicality of Faith: A Lifestyle Not a Science

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour
[1 Peter 5:8]

All God needs for you to do is make up in your mind that you will not be a victim anymore. With victory begins a quality decision. To receive any promise of God it requires a step of faith. Since Jesus is the author and finisher of our faith, we must begin by seeking him for the answer.

In the natural world, when you are doing business, the more you know about a product or services the less likely you will be taken advantage of. The same is true about your adversary, the more you know about him, the devil, the less he will be able to get over on you. Our text says he prowls around like a roaring lion looking for a victim. First, let us define a victim: someone who has suffered loss by being swindled or duped by some act, condition or circumstance. Therefore, Satan is searching for individuals who appear deceivable, and easy to take advantage of. Notice the text gives you some insight on the devil's limited power, because if he has to look for someone, then it means he cannot destroy everyone. The victims of his sinister plans will be those who do not possess a solid understanding of the word God. The Bible says my people are not destroyed because we have a mean devil, but because of a lack of knowledge.

This cycle of victimization can be destroyed, but it begins by receiving the anointing that comes through God's word.

This cycle of victimization can be destroyed, but it begins by receiving the anointing that comes through God's word. We must possess a practical understanding of who the enemy is and how he operates. No better way to do that than to first establish who he is not. He is not some fictitious red man with horns and a long tail, he is not a race of people, and he is not even your spouse. He is not a flesh and blood individual, though he may manifest himself through various people, but he is a cruel maniacal, spiritual force that operates through the force of fear to steal, kill, and destroy. He has so shrewdly wrapped himself up in this world's system that most people do not even believe he still exists. The world has embraced Satan today as if he is not the Prince of Darkness.

Fear, as we noted, has suddenly become a very marketable commodity. Its lineage has marred societies, separated races, divided kingdoms and terrorized communities. Fear is a ruthless and savage foe that only seeks to paralyze and destroy its opponents. You wonder how something that is so hideous can be embraced and accepted by our society. Well, I will tell you how- by making it an acceptable way of life.

One Thing:

Hungry Hearts Get Filled

One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.

[Psalm 27 :4]

Many have been taught to believe the blessing is righteousness, but this not what Jesus said. Righteousness is only a by-product of a precondition. The precondition of righteousness is hunger and thirst. The true blessing of life is to be hungry and thirsty for God's Kingdom. [Romans 14:48] When you are hungry and thirsty enough, then the byproduct of that pre condition is righteousness. When we are born again, we are brought into the Kingdom of God. We know we are called out of darkness into his marvelous light. We understand then the kingdom is held in a mystery. [Matthew 13:11] It is that mystery he has brought us into and made us stewards over. We learn that we have this treasure in our earthen vessels. [2 Corinthians 4:7] The mysteries of the Kingdom are far beyond the natural realm that we have been called to access. Therefore, the essence of the Kingdom is faith as Jesus taught it. Those who are truly blessed will also have the tangible evidence of physical blessings because of their hunger for the kingdom of God. Jesus did say if you seek after my Kingdom then all the things you desire will be added unto you. [Matthew 6:33] As born again believers our number one concern should be to possess this spiritual kingdom. It is also clear that to possess it will take a whole hearted effort from the pursuer.

So through this faith we understand the worlds were framed by the Word of God. [Hebrew 1:3] So then by faith we understand there are things that we cannot see with the natural optic nerve, but are a reality in the spirit. Again, understand, by this faith we have been brought into this mystery. The reason it is so important to embrace this concept is because a great number of God's people have been bought out of darkness into the light, yet they never comprehend or lay hold to the mystery of the Kingdom. The one thing David knew is if he were to serve a spiritual God while in this natural world, he must gain a spiritual understanding. Likewise, even we who are saved by his grace and will go to heaven one day, must be willing to live a life of frustration and futility upon the earth if we don't embrace the fact that in order to enjoy the world promised to us now by faith, we must exercise these exact same principles entering into the Kingdom of God.

Reality of the Kingdom of God

Christians who are born again believers have to understand that God is a spirit and they that worship must worship Him in spirit. [John 14:24] This spiritual Kingdom is much more powerful than anything we can see in the natural kingdom we have been relegated to live in all the days of our lives. The Bible teaches that everything we can see or touch will fade away. [2 Corinthians 4:18] The laws of physics and materialism teach us even though the matter is so minute that we cannot see it, everything is in the process of devolving. And if it were left alone long enough, it would return to dust, or ashes or its original composite state. It teaches that in time rust sets in or moths corrupt everything. Jesus confirmed this when he said, Heaven and Earth (things) will pass away, but my word (spiritual things) shall continue to stand forever. It is when the spiritual reality interpenetrates the natural world that we experience a glimpse of the Kingdom of God. What we call a miracle is exercising the Kingdom of God over the natural world we see. Therefore, when Jesus comes into our lives he calls men out of natural existence into spiritual existence. He now says what was a mystery is now at hand. He exhibits this new kingdom by speaking over the natural elements. He exercised his authority over the kingdom we are called to show; we are no more by its law when we operate in faith. It is in the Kingdom of God we are called to cast our devils, that try to bind us up in material circumstances. [Mark 16:17] We must understand that we were made to partake of this supernatural kingdom as believers. The gospel of Mark confirms these are the signs that should follow the life of all believers. [Mark 16:20] Even though all is not manifest now, we have the first fruits of it residing in our born again spirit. Therefore natural things cannot hold us, we are not governed by the laws that govern this world. [1 John 4:4] We have been brought into a kingdom where the King is owner of the Heaven and Earth. Hallelujah

There are Christians who think their lives are governed by fate; whatever is supposed to happen will happen. This brings them into superstition (astrology, lines in their hands, old wives fables). There are others who think their lives are governed by what someone has or has not done to them or for them (tradition). They think they can never rise above the abuse or somebody else's treatment of them. This kind of thinking makes them feel they can never exceed above the words spoken over their lives. Now this is not to minimize pain, but we are not supposed to be dictated or controlled by the worst things that ever happened to you but instead by the power of the Holy Spirit. [Ephesians 5:18] When you come into the reality of the Kingdom of God, God's opinion makes others peoples opinion irrelevant. Others may not have seen your gifting or your anointing, trying to make you feel less than your anointing. But Jesus came to make you feel like more than – a conqueror, the head and not the tail...a winner in every situation. That means you do not live under your circumstances or under other people's words, but you are seated in Heavenly places in Christ Jesus.

[Colossians 3:1-3] With that understanding, where other folks should have helped or could have helped but did not, you now have the power that is in the Kingdom of God to help yourself. We serve a God who is able to do far above what we can even imagine.

There comes a time in our walk with God that where we were born does not count, or how much or how little education you have does not count. These things do not dictate the destiny of the future of a born again believer. For the bible says, "those he did fore-know He did predestinate to be conformed to the image of His dear son. For it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but when we shall see him we shall be like owe him our gratitude. [Deuteronomy 8] Let us not repeat the cycle of Israel and forget the Lord our God. Let us show him our appreciation for his goodness, mercy, long suffering and patience with us while we were being perfected. For He is the one who has brought us out of darkness into his marvelous light, out of the house of slavery, we should feel obligated to obey his word and his voice. [1 Peter 2:9] him. [Romans 8:29, 1 John 3:2] When we see him, we shall see him as co-heirs and will look just like Jesus. You may have had to limp your way to this point, you may have had much tribulation to this point, but as you press to enter into this kingdom you will experience a life reigning as kings in this realm called life. David realized with all his success that there was still one thing lacking. He knew he could not measure success based on the earthly material blessings, because true success, power and strength come from the Lord. If we came short of the goal of God, what have we really accomplished? Jesus assesses what profit is there if a man gains the world but loses his soul?[Mark 8:36] With that in mind and all that living the kingdom of God promises, David made it his heartfelt desire to enter and dwell in the House of the Lord. Don't confuse the House of God with the one physically located in Heaven. This house is the place he prepared for all believers to dwell in as mentioned in the Gospel of John. [John 14:6] David's press signifies a type of believer who passionately desires and seeks to enter into the spiritual kingdom of God. In order to get into the House of God's presence you must first get into the kingdom of God through salvation.

Access to this spiritual kingdom with all its wonders is not for the faint of heart. If the message of Christ has touched your life, it must be violently and enthusiastically seized. [Matthew 11:12] This kingdom, if ever to be experienced, has to be passionately pursued. Is knowing and understanding God "the one" thing you desire above all else? If not, today, make knowing God your primary goal and hearts desire like King David. Let Heaven testify of you as a man/woman after and in hot pursuit of God's heart. [Acts 13:22] If we, as a kingdom of believers, would make God our "one thing" we seek more than anything else, God promised we will lack no good thing. [Psalm 34:10]

Bonds of Fellowship

Colossians 2:1-2

Summary

Continuing our study on the Fellowship with God, we move to Bonds of Fellowship. Our study this month discusses how our fellowship with God holds us together. As the body of Christ we share the same savior, One who has shared in all of our infirmities. He knows the hurts and fears we keep silent, our shared savior knows the cares and concerns of each and every part of his body. Our shared savior offers salvation daily. The day you walked away defeated, our shared savior speaks to you before you even get home, try again! As we studied last month in Fellowship with God, the nature and need of man require fellowship with God for newness of life, which means bounds, fastens, and confines are necessary.

Continue in the your outline for more Bonds of Fellowship: salvation, spirit, scriptures, and service.

When we choose to remain in fellowship with God, we receive the blessings of fellowship, such as salvation, joy, and peace. Otherwise, we choose to allow barriers to overcome our thoughts causing us to speak ungodly disassociating with God. We must keep in mind to remain in fellowship with God, this is also our fellowship with the body of Christ.

This month we thought it appropriate to suggest the following song to accompany your message: Bless be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love.
