Letter from the Editor Stay on Board!

Body of Christ, what if Ichabod were written over the door to your heart? If there were no presence of God, how long could you live? For in Him we live and move and have our being. [Acts 17:28a.]

This month, The Conductor is here to check your spiritual vital signs. [p16] If, by chance, you are found without the presence of God, we are here to help you revive God's glory in your heart with six simple steps.

1. Confess it is gone. [2 Kings 6:5]
2. Realize the power was not yours - it belongs to God. [2 Kings 6:5]
3. Turn to God and humble ourselves and declare our need for him. [2 Timothy 6:5-6]
4. Go back to the place you lost his presence, usually where you let the devil steal God's presence. [2 Kings 6:6] [Continued on p18]

Who Has Your Heart?

Watch over your heart with all diligence, for out of it flows the issues of life. [Proverbs 4:23]

We must pay attention to who we give our hearts to. In the natural, our heart is the most vital organ in our body, if it stops, everything stops. Why do we give our hearts so easily to those who have not proven themselves worthy? Proverbs 4:23 tells us, “watch over your heart with all diligence, for out of it flows the issues of life.” Issues as we know them are all matters of importance to be resolved. Let us talk about that little word issue. We would not have as many of these issues in life if we would obey this scripture, guard and watch over your heart. When we dismiss this word, it is a setup for a heart attack. When we put a guard over something, it is because we are trying to protect it or keep something out. God does not want us to allow certain things to get in our heart, thus he tells us to guard our hearts.

When we dismiss this word, it is a setup for a heart attack.

We will go through all kinds of things for the one who has our heart. Whatever they desire, we will try our best to please them, even if we do not feel like it but because they have our heart we will at least try. When God truly has our heart, His desire becomes our desire.

Sometimes we let people into our Holy of Holies too soon. As soon as they say what we want to hear, and satisfy our flesh, ‘presto’ they are in.; the combination has been broken. We must be like our Father, God;,, he does not let just any `ole body into his Holy of Holies. We have to be proven first then he will let us in. We do not make people prove themselves like God does. Many are so desperate to have someone in their life that it does not take much. Do not sell your heart so cheaply! The wrong person, with the right words, right smile, and right bank account can gain access to our heart. Why is this so? Selah.

It is mentioned many times in the Bible, the old and the new testament, that we are to “LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND” (also translated as strength), but notice in all of them he mentions your heart first. Love Him with all your heart first. God knows when loving and pleasing him is a priority everything else comes second, third, fourth, etc. [Deuteronomy 30:6, Matthew 22:37] He wants our heart to be anchored in Him only. God does not want our hearts to be divided. He knows if it is, there will not be total commitment, therefore giving place for abandonment. Too many options are not always good. Sometimes when things are not going good in our eyes, we may tend to turn to something we should not or even

loved one or misplaced something of value to you, there is a feeling of grief and loss. Why? They were considered important and valuable to you. Why did it hurt and bother you so bad, because you treasured that person. They meant a lot to you. You did not feel the hurt in your toe, you felt that hurt in your heart.

Matthew 6:21 says, "for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

revert back to what use to be. God does not want anything or anybody to be able to turn our heart away from him. Romans 8:35 asks a question, "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ?" Our prayer is nothing shall separate you; God did not spare his own Son, but delivered him over for all..." [Romans 8:32] God did not allow a little heart ache of the suffering of his Son to separate him from purpose. He did not hold him back because Jesus' heart was to do his Father's will. As a parent, we know that could not have been easy but his heart was dedicated to fulfilling the big picture--through hurt and pain, this must be so Jesus was always focused and had the heart of his Father, he was always about His Father's business. He and the Father were one; there was always a united purpose. Luke 4:18-19 says, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor. God said, He has placed His treasure in earthen vessels... [2 Corinthians 4:7] We are the earthen vessels he is referring to; yes, you have a treasure on the inside of you! What is that treasure? His Spirit; we must be counted special in order for God to place this gift in us. When we possess something that is valuable, we do not just lay it around anywhere, we put it in a special place. We choose a place where no one else will look. Well, that is pretty much what God did when He put His spirit in us. He put something valuable inside something special. So, if you did not know, you are special to God. Let Him have your heart and avoid the heart attacks. He wants it ALL.

Take Financial Authority

- * God wants me wealthy with a reason
- * I'll speak this word until I'm running over with blessings
- * I'm on my way to a wealthy place.
- * God wants me to have money with a plan
- * I'll speak this word until I'm running over with blessings!
- * Thou has caused men to ride over our heads,
- * We went through the fire, we went through the water, but thou brought us out into a wealthy place.
- * There's money in my mouth. I'll speak it out of my mouth.
- * I believe that I receive, Double, Double, in every area of my life this year.
- * I call my house and all my assets paid for,
- * I believe that I receive super natural provision today.
- * I command the blessings of God and the favor of God to over take my life and my family's life.

The Practicality of Faith: A Lifestyle Not a Science

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour
[1 Peter 5:8]

Excerpt

All God needs for you to do is make up in your mind that you will not be a victim anymore. With victory begins a quality decision. To receive any promise of God it requires a step of faith. Since Jesus is the author and finisher of our faith, we must begin by seeking him for the answer.

In the natural world, when you are doing business, the more you know about a product or services the less likely you will be taken advantage of. The same is true about your adversary, the more you know about him, the devil, the less he will be able to get over on you. Our text says he prowls around like a roaring lion looking for a victim. First, let us define a victim: someone who has suffered loss by being swindled or duped by some act, condition or circumstance. Therefore, Satan is searching for individuals who appear deceivable, and easy to take advantage of. Notice the text gives you some insight on the devil's limited power, because if he has to look for someone, then it means he cannot destroy everyone. The victims of his sinister plans will be those who do not possess a solid understanding of the word God. The Bible says my people are not destroyed because we have a mean devil, but because of a lack of knowledge.

This cycle of victimization can be destroyed, but it begins by receiving the anointing that comes through God's word.

This cycle of victimization can be destroyed, but it begins by receiving the anointing that comes through God's word. We must possess a practical understanding of who the enemy is and how he operates. No better way to do that than to first establish who he is not. He is not some fictitious red man with horns and a long tail, he is not a race of people, and he is not even your spouse. He is not a flesh and blood individual, though he may manifest himself through various people, but he is a cruel maniacal, spiritual force that operates through the force of fear to steal, kill, and destroy. He has so shrewdly wrapped himself up in this world's system that most people do not even believe he still exists. The world has embraced Satan today as if he is not the Prince of Darkness.

Fear, as we noted, has suddenly become a very marketable commodity. Its lineage has marred societies, separated races, divided kingdoms and terrorized communities. Fear is a ruthless and savage foe that only seeks to paralyze and destroy its opponents. You wonder how something that is so hideous can be embraced and accepted by our society. Well, I will tell you how- by making it an acceptable way of life.

Reverend Dr. Edwin E. Ford Sr.

Ichabod: [1 Samuel 4:21]

Ichabod: the Glory is Gone

& Who Cares?

And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we inquired not at it in the days of Saul. [1 Chronicles 13:3]

Then she named the child Ichabod, saying, The glory has departed from Israel: because the ark of God had been captured...[1 Samuel 4:21] Ichabod was the name the daughter-in-law of the priest Eli gave her newborn child when she heard the news that the ark was captured and the priest and her husband were dead. Ichabod literally means, the glory has departed.

It was written of a study that was conducted, that if the Holy Spirit was taken away from the church, that the majority of those who call themselves Christians would not even know he had left. What a sad state of affairs for the church, to lose the very thing that gives it life and be totally oblivious to his departure. The modern day church is not the first to find themselves in this dilemma. You remember Samson who made sport of the Philistines one time too many. And to his humiliation when he awoke out of his sleep, he tried to operate in the power of God's spirit as before, "And he wist and knew not that the Lord was departed from him" [Judges 16:20.] To be divided from the spirit symbolically represents death. For Paul said, "in Him we live, and move, and have our being;" [Acts 17:28a.] God's spirit is the source and sustainer of all life. [Hebrews 1:3] That being true, for the believer losing God's Spirit should be like the human body losing oxygen, it dies. For the believer when we observe no movement, no consciousness of God, nor awareness of

His spirit, and no evidence of the power of God. We must conclude the spirit of Ichabod has is present. Sad to say this is diagnosis of the lives of many believers and the churches they attend. The devastation is not the diagnosis, but the church's response to the diagnosis. The glory is gone, but who really cares?

In our text, Saul had been in power over Israel and never made any inquisition about recovering the ark and bringing it back into the city of God. The very thing that made him great became easily disposable and forgotten once he reached his personal goals. Isn't that like a lot of so-called Christians, once God gives them what they want, His presence is no longer needed. They do not even care if He goes, nor know when He left. If God's spirit means anything to you, when was the last time you checked your spiritual vitals. In first aid there are some emergency actions you should take if you suspect a life threatening condition. 1. Check for consciousness—is there anymore conviction in your spirit? 2. Check breathing—is there any fruit of the spirit evident. 3. Check Pulse—can you feel or sense the heartbeat of God concerning the matter of your life. 4. Check for severe bleeding—are there any losses in your life you can not stop. If any of these things are evident, seek immediate help from a qualified elder, anointed by God.

Life is precious and valuable, and as we know anything of value carries a great cost. With this I began to understand why many do not desire God's presence as they should. Because it is expensive. For all contents and purposes, people are cheap and if it does not appeal to their own selfish desires, they may not be willing to purchase it. Now we know this is true, people always will go the extra mile to get whatever they want. If they have to take out a loan, use a credit card, steal or kill, if needs be, they have deemed it worthy of their obsession. They would justify doing anything to get it. This same sentiment lies in the heart of every true worshipper. Like Abraham, even if I have to sacrifice my promised child on an altar of fire, I must worship God because he alone is worthy. This same love was extended to us all when Jesus went to the cross to purchase the privilege to receive eternal life from God the Father. This purchase also came with the opportunity to experience the power and presence of God everyday. That is what the glory represents in the life of every believer.

When you have God's glory, you have joy, compassion, growth, relationship, peace, and most of all God's power. [Acts 1:8] The church is in desperate need of a double dose of the glory of God. When I say church, I am not solely referencing a building, but a people who are born again through the blood of Jesus Christ and represent that new identity on the earth today. I am not saying, by any means that we do not have some, but we must be honest with ourselves and confess we are lacking some of the dynamite power Jesus promised. Come on now, new tongues, casting out demons, sick recovering, and restoring sight to blind (those who have no vision), are we doing that on demand. Jesus thought we should be, or why else would he say, "greater works shall we do; because I go unto my father." [John 14:12] That promise of going leaves the expectation of something coming back in a greater magnitude. And it did come back, but do you have it in your life or do you even care?

Do You Care About Having God's Glory?

In the book of 2 Kings Chapter 6, verses 1 through 7 offers some possible solutions to those who may desire to get the glory back into their individual and corporate lives. It is story of the lost axe head. The axe head represents God's power and glory in our lives as believers. The handle represents the flesh, all we do without God which includes our talents, skills, and intelligence, or education. The axe head was lost, probably for a number of reasons. Categorically, it falls under pride, exalting self over the knowledge of God, false pretense, looking spiritual, but void of a real anointing in your life, and finally disobedience, doing what I want to do and refusing to do what God wants if it conflicts with my will. Sound like anybody you know. Any of these things can rob us of the glory of God's presence in our lives. But if that has happened and there is no consciousness of God, no breath of the Almighty, no spiritual pulse of discernment or any severe bleeding and loss, follow these steps and recover the glory.

First you must confess it is gone. [2 Kings 6:5] Second, we must realize the power was not yours - it belongs to God. [2 Kings 6:5] Third, we must turn to God and humble ourselves and declare our need for him. [2 Timothy 6:5-6] Fourth, go back to the place you lost his presence, usually where you let the devil steal God's presence. [2 Kings 6:6] Fifth, allow God's forgiveness, this stick also represents the cross, the place we now go to experience forgiveness. [2 Kings 6:6] Sixth, receive God's power and glory back into our lives, take it back and guard your heart with care. [2 Kings 5:6-7] Remember it requires us to reach out and take. This implies it requires effort on your part if we are going to bring the glory of God back into our lives. No matter how great the cost, it will not be able to compare with the glory that will be revealed. [Romans 4:18] This year the victory is ours for the claiming. If you reach out and receive what God has made available for us!

Pledge of Allegiance

Numbers 30:1-2

Pledge of Allegiance Numbers 30:1-2

Summary

Moses said to the heads of the tribes of Israel: "this is what the Lord commands: ² When a man makes a vow to the Lord or takes an oath to obligate himself by a pledge, he must not break his word but must do everything he said. [Numbers 30: 1-2]

This message, explores the many facets of our lives where we are called to enter into solemn vows. Whether a vow to our country, companion, children, church, or to Christ, these commitments are precious in the sight of the Lord. Let us look at the definition of the words pledge and allegiance; A pledge is a solemn binding promise to do, give, or refrain from doing something. Allegiance signifies the loyalty or the obligation of loyalty, as to a nation, sovereign, or cause. Our pledge tells the witnessing parties we have the capacity for the assignment; it suggests we are sincere regarding our commitment to remain loyal. In other words, a pledge says you are able to perform the task! Remember your pledge to Christ, to the church, to your children, your companion, and your country and do all that you have set out to do.

Pledge of Allegiance

Numbers 30:1-2

I. To my Country

- A. Fifty-six men signed Declaration of Independence two hundred thirty-seven years ago*
- B. Men who put their money and life on the line for their country*

II. To my Companion

- A. To love and to cherish*
- B. Sickness and in health – for as long as we shall live*
- C. Better or for worse*

III. To My Children

- A. To protect with my life*
- B. To tell them the truth- to love them regardless*
- C. Never forsake them*
- D. Show them the way to God and the ways of God*

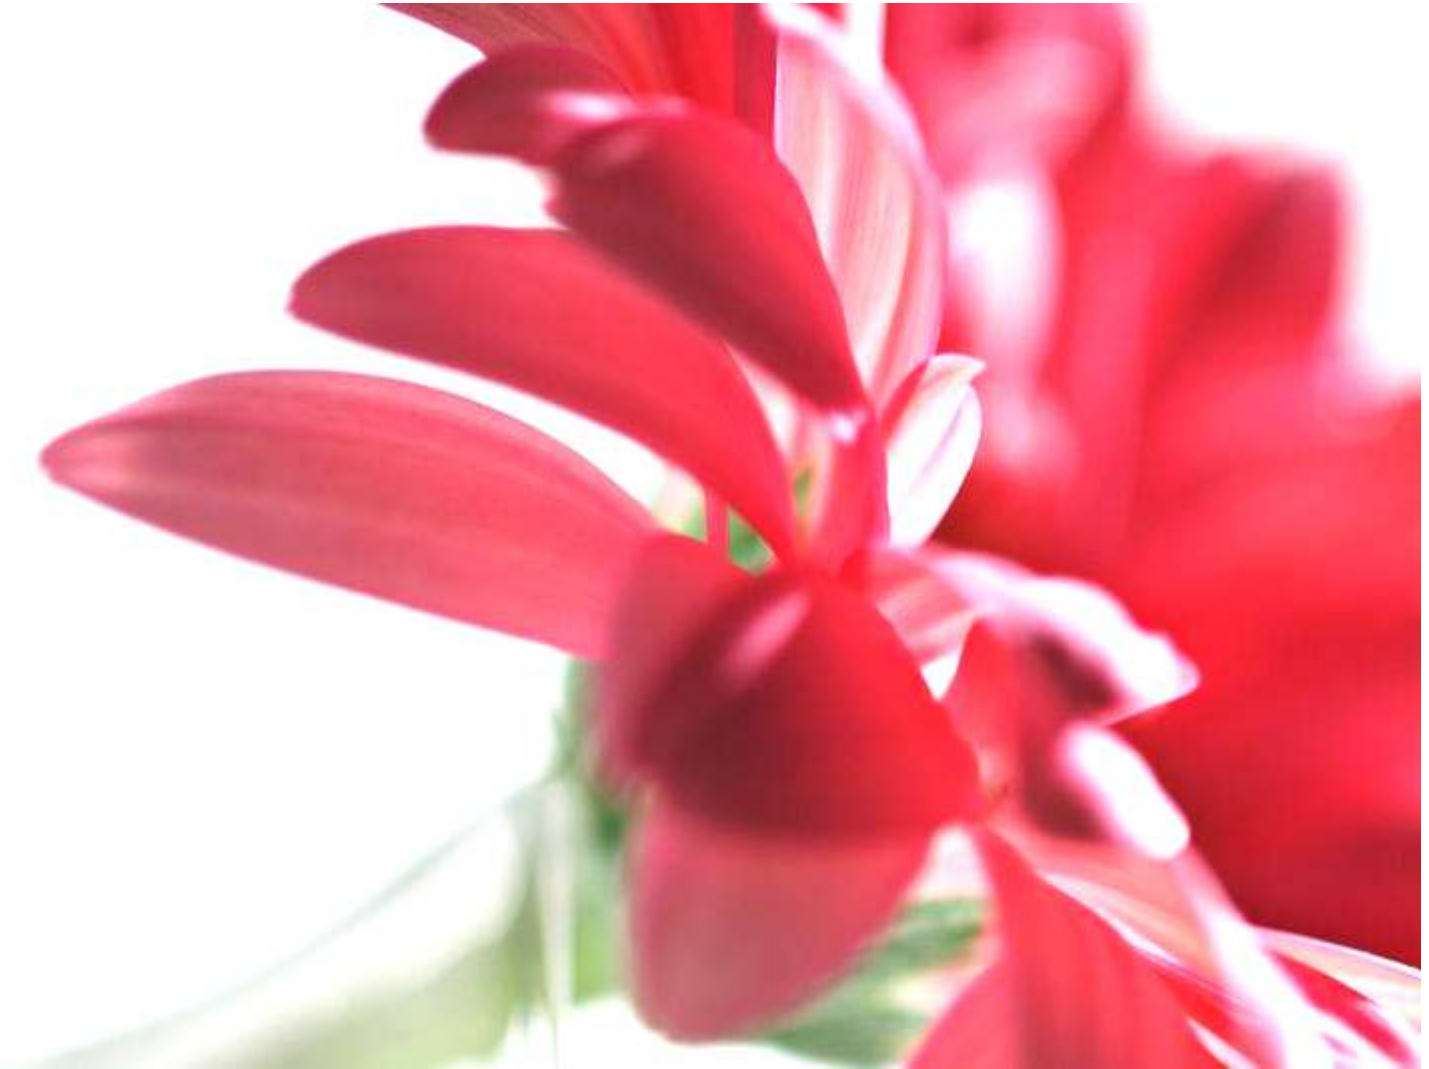

IV. To My Church

- A. Show spiritual and moral support*
- B. Offer financial support*
- C. Display faithfulness*
- D. Teach the doctrines of church*

V. To Christ

Sow $2 a week for 5 weeks to get a copy of the message.

Then take the CD and give it to someone---
---who is not saved

As a whole church, we commit to praying for those who have received a CD. Then watch God do His part to bring people to our church.

That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.¹⁰ For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. Romans 10:9-10

Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun. [Psalm 19:4]
