Happy FATHER'S DAY Pastor Ford From All Of Us!!!

Pastor, you have truly been instrumental in my spiritual growth, your love for God and ministry is awe-inspiring.

Thankyou

Happy Father's Day

- Robert McIntyre

Dear Pastor Ford

I come to you this Father's Day to wish you a great God-filled day; You are a wonderful spirit-filled man. It is not just myself who notices your walk. Everyone that has had the privilege of being in your presence can feel and see God's love in you. Have a great and joyful day this Father's Day.

Much love and admiration

-Les

P.S. You deserve it

Praise ye the LORD. Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD, that delighteth greatly in his commandment. ² His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed. ³ Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever. ⁴ Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous. ⁵ A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with discretion. ⁶ Surely he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance. ⁷ He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD. ⁸ His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, until he see his desire upon his enemies. ⁹ He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour. ¹⁰ The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: the desire of the wicked shall perish.

Pastor Ford we thankyou for being a man the fears the Lord. [Psalm 112]

Letter from the Editor Stay on Board!

Body of Christ, is there any room in your life for Jesus? The Conductor's column this month explores the zealous Christian phrase, "I want to be used by God." Now ask yourself, is there room in my heart and life for God to use me? Why do I want to be used by God? As the author states it, "When a life has been consumed by God's love, the hearts response is to reciprocate that love by yielding their all to Him..." [p16] This is true, and possibly the answer to your why. Now when we find ourselves in this yielded position if we remember to keep thanking the Lord for his grace, we will come up clean. Just as the great man of God, Naaman, who was also a leper. [2 Kings 5:14]

If you want it—— it's yours!

The Conductor is here to help guide you to a life grounded in Jesus Christ. Are you on board?

Is Your Seed In Or Out of Christ?

And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between they seed and her seed, it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. [Genesis 3:15]

Some people do not realize that God, Jehovah Himself has been declaring the good news a long time. The Gospel was not first spoken through men but by God Himself. God told us in Genesis Chapter 3 that there was going to be some hostility and hatred between our seed and the seed of the serpent. Since He already warned us, why are we struck with amazement? Our seed are like arrows in the hand of a warrior according to Psalm 127:4. Are you a warrior in God's army? If so, do you know what to do with your arrows? A warrior does not use arrows to play patty cake, arrows weapons are for warfare. If we do things God's way, our seed can be detrimental to the kingdom of darkness. Our seed, as Christians are in Christ, the Anointed One. But for the serpent, his seed is of Satan. God told us that He put enmity between us and our seed. [Genesis 3:15] And since God is a God of purpose, enmity must have an assignment in our lives. Because of what happen in the garden, this is a part of the curse.

News flash, Satan does not like you or your children!!! And guess what, the feeling should be mutual. If someone were trying to deceive my mother in order to get their way, I would have a problem with them, what about you? Well, in the garden, the serpent was not talking to Eve because he was seeking friendship, deception was his goal. Rev. 12:17 says (Satan) the dragon was enraged with the woman, and went off to make war with the rest of her children, who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Jesus." The enemy has a problem with anyone who is trying to do right by God. Do not take it personal, he does not like any of us. If you have been serving God any amount of time and have kids you already know, when the enemy can not get to us, he will start messing with our children. As warriors we must train our arrows (seed) to have a relationship with Christ. Because it is not a matter of if they will be attacked but when they will be attacked. And they need to know that their victory is only in Christ Jesus.

God is a God of provision. He takes excellent care of His children. And He knows what is best for us. A good father does not always give his children what they want but what they need. With that being said, we must understand that provision is not only money, clothes, food, etc. Provision is whatever is needed for the journey and God has provision for everything we need. So, sometimes enmity may be a part of our provision. If God allows it, we should too. In the end, it is all going to work together for our good and make us who we need to be in Him. [Romans 8:28] This is why He, the master craftsman, says, “many are the afflictions of the righteous but the Lord delivers out of them all.” [Psalm 34:19] Did you see that, He delivers out of them all, not some. Without conflicts, there is no need for victory. Do not lose hope and do not lose heart. It may look like your seed is losing their battle but remind yourself of what God has said in His word and hold fast to your confession of faith. Do not allow what you see to change your confession. Be confident in God’s word, it will produce. Even though there will be challenges, God said our seed is going to do more damage than the enemy’s seed. [Hebrews 10:35, Genesis 3:15]

“In the end, it is all going to work together for our good...” want to serve Him

If someone gives you a gift whether it’s your birthday, anniversary or whatever, how do you respond? We all like gifts. Gifts are given to help, to put joy in our hearts and a smile on our faces. Psalm 127:3 says, “Children are a gift of the Lord, The fruit of the womb is a reward.” When the Lord blesses us with children it’s a good thing, a reward from the Lord. Rewards come as a result of good accomplishments, if God gave you children don’t take that lightly, you have found favor with the Father. As parents we must be good stewards with our gifts, after all they did not ask to be here. It is our job and responsibility to love, nurture, train, and be examples before our children. [Ephesians 6:4] The life we live for God should create a desire in our children to too. If we have trained our seed in the word of God like He told us to, we should have confidence knowing that word will not return void. [Isaiah 55:11] As parents we do not want our children to suffer. We do not want them to struggle, but we did, and we came out alright. If we would admit it, our times of lack, hurts and disappointments made us stronger. We have got to allow our children to go through their Samaritan experiences, they are necessary for their destiny. Proverbs 22:6 says to, “Train up a child in the way he should go, when he is old he will not depart from it.” By no means can we force our children to live righteous and holy lives, God does not even do that to us, but if we train them righteously, at least now there is no excuse. They know better. Now we have got to trust God. [Proverbs 3:5]

Remember Mary, the mother of Jesus, not one time did she go to God and pray please stop all the abuse and affliction against my son. Absolutely not, but will you? Mary knew that Jesus had to go through the whole process to get to his destiny. I know it hurt her to watch her son suffer but it was necessary. And it hurts us also to see our children suffer but we must permit it without interference. The bible says Mary was highly favored among women and she had favor with God. [Luke 1:28] All of us learned things along our journey growing up and they were not all pleasant but they made us who we are today. Therefore why do we think it is going to be helpful to exempt our children from their journey?

We need to stay in our lane and let God be God. He knows those treasures He has put in us and in our seed. [2 Corinthians 4:7] Remember treasures are not discovered on the surface; you may have to go through some dirt to get to the treasure but it will be worth it in the end. And afterward, clean yourself off and enjoy your discovery. Remember God already told us it is going to be some friction between us and Satan. Therefore everything is not going to be smooth sailing all the time and no waves. The boat will be rocked a few times. But God also gave us some good news that there is only going to be some heel damage to our seed compared to blows to the head to his seed. Sounds like a good deal to me, I'll take it, what about you? [Genesis 3:15]

God is telling us that Satan is under our feet. I know it looks like he's getting the advantage over our seed but keep looking, it ain't over yet. Maybe you think the word isn't working but now is the time to stir up your mind and put yourself in remembrance of God's word. God can't lie and He watches over His word to perform it. He said, no weapon formed us shall prosper and that's what He meant. It won't work and We Win!!!! [Isaiah.54:17]

The Practicality of Faith: A Lifestyle Not a Science

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour
[1 Peter 5:8]

Excerpt

All God needs for you to do is make up in your mind that you will not be a victim anymore. With victory begins a quality decision. To receive any promise of God it requires a step of faith. Since Jesus is the author and finisher of our faith, we must begin by seeking him for the answer.

In the natural world, when you are doing business, the more you know about a product or services the less likely you will be taken advantage of. The same is true about your adversary, the more you know about him, the devil, the less he will be able to get over on you. Our text says he prowls around like a roaring lion looking for a victim. First, let us define a victim: someone who has suffered loss by being swindled or duped by some act, condition or circumstance. Therefore, Satan is searching for individuals who appear deceivable, and easy to take advantage of. Notice the text gives you some insight on the devil's limited power, because if he has to look for someone, then it means he cannot destroy everyone. The victims of his sinister plans will be those who do not possess a solid understanding of the word God. The Bible says my people are not destroyed because we have a mean devil, but because of a lack of knowledge.

This cycle of victimization can be destroyed, but it begins by receiving the anointing that comes through God's word.

This cycle of victimization can be destroyed, but it begins by receiving the anointing that comes through God's word. We must possess a practical understanding of who the enemy is and how he operates. No better way to do that than to first establish who he is not. He is not some fictitious red man with horns and a long tail, he is not a race of people, and he is not even your spouse. He is not a flesh and blood individual, though he may manifest himself through various people, but he is a cruel maniacal, spiritual force that operates through the force of fear to steal, kill, and destroy. He has so shrewdly wrapped himself up in this world's system that most people do not even believe he still exists. The world has embraced Satan today as if he is not the Prince of Darkness.

Fear, as we noted, has suddenly become a very marketable commodity. Its lineage has marred societies, separated races, divided kingdoms and terrorized communities. Fear is a ruthless and savage foe that only seeks to paralyze and destroy its opponents. You wonder how something that is so hideous can be embraced and accepted by our society. Well, I will tell you how- by making it an acceptable way of life.

Can God Really 'USE' YOU?

²⁰ But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. ²¹ If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work. [2 Timothy 2:20-21]

I often hear Christians make the claim, "Lord I am available to be used for your glory" or better they harmoniously sing, "if you can use anything Lord, you can use me." I hate to say this, but those declarations have proven to be some of the biggest lies I have ever heard in Christendom. Why? I truly do not believe it was said from an insincere heart or from depraved motives, but more-so from ignorance to what is actually required to accomplish such a feat. To be used of God is, in my opinion, one of the greatest desires of a believer. When a life has been consumed by God's love, the hearts response is to reciprocate that love by yielding their all to Him. Many have that zeal to do God's will, but obviously lack the knowledge to perform it. To be used by God has more to do with availability than it does ability. Therefore, it is one's amount of capacity for God that will directly determine their degree of usage by God.

The declaration: "I want God to use me" now becomes a question, can God really use me? So when you say, I want to be used without making an assessment of how much personal space you have for usage, you can put yourself up for condemnation. Many times when we avail ourselves to God, it appears He demands more of us than we have to give. First of all that can not be true of God because it is unbiblical. [1 Corinthians 10:13] Second, because we are willing does not necessarily mean we are available. Do you remember when Jesus was about to be born and his mother Mary and father Joseph looked for a place to rest and give birth that they found no room in the inn? [Luke 2:7] I do not believe those inn keepers were trying to turn away business, but they were unable to provide the service because the physically had no more vacancies. Isn't that like a lot of good hearted believers? They have Jesus standing at the door knocking but their lives are so filled with things that have no meaning and have filled their lives with things that are contrary to their purpose, He can not get in. Is there any room in your life today for Jesus? If not how can he use you? God is looking for people who will let Him work through them, not necessarily for people to work for Him.

A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near you. Psalms 91:7

The Bible is full of examples of the most unusual people being used by God in mighty ways to accomplish His plans. Like Moses who stuttered. Jacob was a trickster. David had an affair. Abraham was too old. Solomon was too young. Jonah ran from God. Miriam was a gossip girl.

Gideon and Thomas both doubted. Elijah was burned out, and Martha was a worry wart. Either God does not know how to conduct a job interview or he was looking for something other than what they can do for Him? We are many times too concerned with extrinsic factors more than intrinsic factors. [1 Samuel 16:7] The one common denominator I have found in all these unworthy candidates was they were all available to God. No matter the road they had to travel to become empty of self, they did it and became meat for the Master's use. I believe that we can and are those vessels who are in the right place, at the right. Fulfill His purpose and His plan in this generation. No more big I's and little u's, but empty vessels who have been poured out as a libation to God and a sacrifice offering for souls. [1 Timothy 4:6] That God and God's name alone may be glorified when the church takes the background, then the world will see Jesus do those greater works He promised and give Him glory! Will you step down and be that vessel through which God can work through? No matter how many good things happen as we operate as vessels of honor, always remember that it is not the vessel doing the work, but it is who they are allowing to flow through the vessel! To be that anointed vessel Paul said, "if a man first cleanse himself...he will be an instrument for noble purposes, made holy—prepared to do any good work." [2 Timothy 2:21 NIV] It is up to us, not God, to get rid of those useless things in our lives that are taking up space. These kind are hindering us from being those cleaned vessels through which God's anointing and power can flow. God can use you!!!

Is there any room in your life today for Jesus?

The Battleground
Ephesians 4:26-27

The Battleground Ephesians 4:26-27

Summary

There is no end to the conflict from new birth to death. This study of the Battleground helps us study the areas that keep us from the Lord. First we see the command, "be angry, but sin not." Be angry against sin and injustice. But control yourself not to sin, as it leads to personal revenge and rage. Here the Lord cautions us not let the sun go down on your anger, make your heart right with God and man because the enemy is committed to slandering us.

This study examines five battlegrounds: Faith, Flesh, Forgiveness, Fellowship, and Fruit. For the faith, the enemy is fighting; are we sober and vigilant in the word in order to keep our faith in God? For our flesh, we battle with ourselves while unbeknownst the enemy is desiring to sift us as wheat. For our forgiveness, we must battle sin. We must ask ourselves have we submitted ourselves to God? For our fellowship with God, we battle the spirit. Have we allowed the spirit of Satan to fill us? For our fruit, we battle the scriptures. Have we given Satan the advantage by not reading daily and responding the demands of the word?

Utilize this outline regularly in teaching your church how to battle using the given scriptures and questionnaires.

- | | |
| I. Battle with Satan for your faith [1 Peter 5:8]
A. Has Satan kept you from total commitment?
B. Has the enemy kept you from trusting completely?
C. Does the enemy keep you from being triumphant continuously? | IV. Battle with the Spirit for your fellowship [Acts 5:3]
A. Are you ignoring his urges?
B. Are you impounding his undertaking to try to stop?
C. Are you impeding his unction? |
| II. Battle with Self for your flesh [Luke 22:31]
A. Are you weak spiritually, unable to take a stand for God?
B. Are you wanting for worldly things or to be in worldly places?
C. Are you wayward, unable to stay on the right road long? | V. Battle with the scriptures for your fruit [2 Corinthians 2:11]
A. Are you reading daily?
B. Are you responding to its' demands? |
| III. Battle with Sin for your forgiveness [James 4:7]
A. Do you have pet sin?
B. Do you have petty sin— small, trifling, irritable sin?
C. Do you have powerful sin? | Sow to Grow! Educate, Feed, Empower your congregation. Make A Difference. Contribute Now!!!
