SAINT OF THE DAY

Feast: 10 MARCH

ST. DOMINIC SAVIO

A student of Saint John Bosco, Saint Dominic Savio organized a group of students to minister to boys who needed guidance and help. Due to illness, however, Dominic never fulfilled his dream of becoming a priest. He died at the age of 14.

PRAY WITH THE SAINTS

Like many a youngster, Dominic was painfully aware that he was different from his peers. He tried to keep his piety from his friends lest he have to endure their laughter. Even after his death, his youth marked him as a misfit among the saints and some argued that he was too young to be canonized. Pope Pius X wisely disagreed. For no one is too young—or too old or too anything else—to achieve the holiness to which we all are called.. Amen

Bread and Stones

In the Gospel Reading, Jesus has not eaten for forty days in the desert and he feels the whole forty days’ worth of hunger. That’s a lot of hunger! Satan comes to him in the desert and urges him to turn stones into bread so that Jesus has something to eat.

Now there’s nothing good about hunger, and there’s nothing bad about bread. On the contrary, Jesus himself commands us to pray for bread daily. And there is no question about the fact that Jesus has the power to provide bread for himself. He can turn water into wine, and he can stop being hungry by turning stones into bread.

As far as that goes, Jesus himself tells us that if a son asks his father for bread, no good father will give him a stone (Lk11:11). So Jesus could get bread from stones just by asking his Father, who is God and good, to give him bread.

Why doesn’t Jesus do so? And what are we to make of the line with which Jesus refuses Satan’s suggestion: “people do not live by bread alone?” If I suggest that you might like some ham, what sense does it make for you to tell me that people do not live by ham alone? Notice, though, that that line does make sense if what you are telling me is that you are full. In another Gospel, Jesus says, “Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.” (Matt 4:4) Jesus himself is the Word of God, and he came into the desert filled with the Spirit of God (Lk 4:1). Even though he is hungry after so long a fast, then, there is another sense in which he really is full.

Jesus’ rejection of Satan’s urging gives us a pattern for our lives. In our suffering, when those things we think we need in order to live are denied us, we do not have to be desperate. When we are hungry for what we do not have because our Father God has not given it, we still have the Word of God, which comes into us and can fill us. Jesus, who is the cornerstone of the Church, is our bread at the same time. And so we can be like him: full—even when, in the stony parts of our lives, we are hungry, too.

Lent:

Getting ready for Jesus' death and resurrection

Lent is the special time when we prepare for the celebration of Jesus' passion, death and resurrection. We get our souls ready by doing prayer, fasting, and almsgiving.

Prayer is talking with God. We need to talk with God even more than we need to talk to our family and friends. Lent is a good time to get into a habit of talking with God every day.

Fasting is eating less than you normally would. It's a good idea to give up a little something you like for Lent. Giving things up helps us remember we need God, not just food.

Almsgiving means giving to those who are in need. It helps us to be generous like God. Maybe you have a bit of money you can give to the poor or to the Church.

Answers to True or False: 1. true, 2. false, 3. false, 4. true, 5. false, 6. true, 7. false.
